Run: 1375
Hare Dosh&Wacuda

Date: 09 June 2017
Venue Kalamunda

THE RUN

The evenings are certainly getting colder, but that did not deter the hard core hashers to turn up and run/walk the streets of Kalamunda. A nice and easy to find trail, which led us to the unmanned drink stop, yes unmanned, no pre mixers ready to be consumed, we had to make our own G&Ts or Port and Lemonade, but nonetheless very refreshing.

Rockbottom decided to show off her local knowledge and led us back to the park, were we had the choice of walking around the ditch or jumping over it. Wisecrack (she has her name for a reason) showed us how (not) to do it, jump and land or finish off with a rollover. She opted for the latter.

THE CIRCLE

It took a moment for the circle to form, the GM pitched himself in front of the BBQ, he must like the smell of gas.

Hare Dosh and Co Hare Wacuda were judged on their trail marking efforts: reverse farrows Walker Slugger thought it was a very good, excellent trail, she did not fall on gravel (there was none) 9.7

Runner Bravetart was reluctant to run because of injury, not enough FTs 9.2

Some extra points were awarded for city views.

LTNS & VISITORS

Tight Arse and Mountain Hawk were our latest returnees, (having travelled through the UK)
The circle fell silent, Mountain Hawk still has control.
