Run: 1384
Hares: Crusher

Date: 11 August 2017
Venue: Kalamunda

THE RUN

A wet, cold and miserable night, the numbers were well down, but twenty two brave hashers assembled at Crusher and Rockbottom's house. The rest of the usual attendances chose to leave the country for warmer climates.

The Hare Crusher was called upon, he wasn't too sure if there were any markers left, so he was going to join the pack, a short run he promised due to the unfavourable weather conditions, but runners and walkers alike were gone for a long time. Only Rambling and Slugger decided on a little walk around the block and joined Rockbottom and the On Sec in the warm kitchen. There seemed some confusion on the run and the hare had to find some of the lost runners. Eventually everyone was back within the hour.

THE CIRCLE

We all gathered around the nice fire which kept us warm and dry. The GM commended the RA for being on good terms with the weather gods again, the rain stopped dead on seven o'clock for the run through Kalamunda.

The three amigos (D Cell, Suka and Sybil) were ready for action:
Hare and Co Hare were judged for their efforts:

Phantom: an extra bloody good trail, hard to find at times but worth it 9.995
Cookie : was also in favour and all praise 9.6
