Run: 1386
Hares: Replicar

Date: 25 August 2017
Venue: Yokine

THE RUN

The venue was Replicar's house, in his garage turned workshop, with plenty of room to house a large group of hashers.

Replicar set the trail with his homemade contraption that produces the smallest of farrows, but one does not have to bend down, very clever.

On Sec stayed behind, still not able to walk long distances, especially in the dark.. she was in good company of Sir Fumbles and Doggy Do, listening to interesting conversations about foot problems and forthcoming cruises.

Big Bang, Hogshit and Puki Merah were the first to return, Hogshit clocked the run at just under 6 km.

THE CIRCLE

Hare Replicar emerged from the kitchen and was judged:

Meladjusted: was confused at the start, but once he found trail was very happy with everything.

Big Bang: couldn't remember anything, farrows didn't lead anywhere.

Hogshit: farrows too small

RA'S ZERO HEROES

Light My Fire 60, Whore Da 60

RA Charges:

Hogshit: still on horn issues

White Pointer: white man can't jump

Dosh: crash on the run

Whore Da: not happy with Doggy Do's performance

Light My Fire: problems with 2$ Coins

Charges from the floor:

GM on Rockbottom: shortcutting her way back home

D Cell on Dead Squid: confusion over cars and number plates

Whore Da on D Cell: hiding the money box under the Mexican hat

Rockbottom on Organ: complained that hashers drink too much at drink stops

Little Prick on Small Goods: using her phone on the run

Sir Fumbles on Cookie: sitting in the Circle

At this stage Rockbottom decided to spice up the Circle, she fainted.....

Luckily there were lots of people around her, Nurse Slugger jumped into action and administered first aid. Rockbottom was back soon after, but a bit puzzled why she ended up on the floor.

Thank you to Cookie and Sir Fumbles for taking her home.
