Run: 1389
Hare: Radar

Date: 15 September 2017
Venue: Southern River

THE RUN

Don't worry, we managed. Abandoned, as we were, by the committee, the Old Guard stepped into the breach, well, more of a chasm, really but Dads' Army came to the rescue. Hogshit did a good Captain Mannering job and managed to keep things in some sort of order. Mountain Hawk On Sec'd; Animule Splashed; Pacemaker RA'd, and Slugger flashed. Fewer participants than usual, closer to 20 than 30 but all in good spirits after being told there would be a drink stop. We were in very new territory, with some blocks vacant; houses still under construction or not yet occupied. Bit of an eerie atmosphere all round but the sound of raging hoons reminded us that there is life on the planet. The drink stop was high up on a lookout structure, where Meladjusted plied us with sangria and lollies. We had been told there would be shiggy but that warning became a topic of disputation during the circle.

THE CIRCLE

On GM's call to order the hares were called in. Tightarse, speaking for the runners, liked the drink stop and gave a score of 9.75. Dead Squid thought everything was awesome but gave an ungenerous score which was disputed by Shadow and adjusted to the usual 9.75 by GM. Troppo complained that the aforementioned shiggy was too dry and called in Meladjusted for misuse of hash parlance. Replicar put an end to the complaint by declaring that he had actually found wet shiggy and showed his mud-spattered shoe to prove it.

RA'S ZERO HEROES

Big Bang – 20; Hogshit 360; Slugger – 360; Brave Tart – 620

RA Charges:

Tightarse was charged with with taking off at high speed to find a tree.

Shadow loved the 'Bigger' sign, misunderstanding what the adjective referred to – in this case - the size of the houses.

RA charged Troppo and Blow Fly with combining their efforts to find the trail – one shining, one calling

Charges from the floor:

Replicar charged D Cell with political advertising in her colourful socks, and then with a breach of hash etiquette by not looking after her guest, Joan.

Deliverance charged Shadow will smelling of Dynamic snifter.

Shadow charged Replicar for something or other.

Tightarse remarked that Troppo can only turn half-way round since having his hip replaced, representing a twin tub rather than a front loader
