Date: 26 Jan 2018

VENUE: Dodd St Wembley

THE CIRCLE: We had 40 runners turn up to Lake Monger for High Beam's Australia Day Run. Plus several hundred Joe Public to enjoy the fireworks in Perth. We delayed the circle until after the fireworks.

THE RUN: High Beam set a good run around Wembley, with plenty of false trails, and loops to get everyone back in 40mins. Plenty of time for getting a drink and position for the fireworks. I scored the run as 10/10.

LTNS: Never hard, Too Tight, Cougar, & Headcase. Also a virgin runner Mary (friend of D Cell).

CHARGES: Radar charged the 2 hashers who crossed the road when High Beam had set trail across a foot bridge for safety. Mouth Organ & Shadow, more hashers confessed to the same offence, Mel Adjusted, 10% & GPS.

JOKERS: Rock Bottom, a young man was the only survivor of a shipwreck, being a strong swimmer he made it to an island, there he found a goat and a dog. After being there for a long time the young man was eyeing the goat for a good time, but the dog got between them & was snarling & baring his teeth. So the young man backed away. A few days later the dog was asleep, so the young man took advantage as was leading the goat away when the dog jumped on him and attacked him. The young man then kept his distance from the goat. A few weeks later he saw someone swimming to the island and struggling. So he ran into the sea & helps this lovely woman onto the beach. Once she recovered she thanked him for saving her, and asked was there anything he wanted her to do to thank him. He considered for a moment, and then asked if she would take the dog for a walk!

Tightarse, A man was walking on a deserted beach when he found a woman buried up to her neck in the sand, she pleaded with him to save her, he asked what in in for me, her reply Sand.

OTHER HASH EVENTS: The SOP Numbats would like an indication of numbers coming to their 1400th run, Please let me or the GM know this week. See the website
