THE CIRCLE: 35 Friday Hashers turned up to the northern run at Gaylord's house. With a small patio, it was decided to have the circle out in the lane. The Circle was interrupted by traffic twice during the circle.

THE RUN: The run meandered around the streets of Joondalup down to Lake Joondalup, south along the paths, the walkers headed back towards the Police Academy, losing then finding trail along the way. The runners did a bigger loop to the southwest, then into the Police Academy, I heard the some of the runner lost trail as well. We all made it home, though Replicar not as safely as everyone else.

Scoring the run Maussie thought it was great 9.5/10. D Cell's gps said 8.5 Km.

Scoring the walk Shadow thought it was great as well and decided to outdo Maussie by scoring 9.6/10. My gps said the walk was 3.5Km.

CHARGES: The RA charged all the titled hashers, Gaylord, Sir Fumbles, Richard the Third. The RA bestows titles on Princess Sluggar, Dame D Cell, and Marquis Mel Adjusted. Drink to all.

Replicar charged Gaylord for the chain that tripped him up near the end of the run. Reversed as Gaylord warned us before the run hashing is dangerous. D Cell was charged for leading 15 Me Nuts astray. Gaylord was charged for using another clubs run, mixing arrows & Farrows.

DUMMY SHORTS: Suka didn't have a nominee. So help from the circle, Radar nominated Shadow, for throwing the track pants sample over the GM's head. Replicar for tripping over the chain. Shadow is this week's dummy.

JOKERS: Cookie There was a petrol station in Ireland that was doing it hard. The owner decided to try & improve business. He put a sign out, free sex with every tank of fuel. Shamus thought that was a great deal and drove in, when he got to Sean the owner, Sean said you have to guess the correct number to win. Shamus guessed 8, oh sorry the number was 6. The next week Shamus tried again, He guessed 5 the correct number was 9. Shamus was talking to his friend Jim, and told him the story. Jim said it sounds like rip off to me. Shamus said, no it is legitimate, my wife has won 3 times now.
