Run: 1257
Hares: Ramblin'

Date: 23 January 2015
Venue: City Beach Shopping Centre Car Park

THE RUN

There are lots of nooks and crannies at City Beach Shopping Centre Car Park but sharp-eyed Trail Master, Dash, avoided confusion by obtaining a precise meeting place from the hare. As usual at City Beach, there was a breeze and most of us felt the need of a jacket, even though it's the middle of summer. It was good to see the return of some of our long lost and a newcomer by the name of Grace.

Ramblin' was asked for run instructions, which he supplied with strange markings, a bouncing ball and orders that we should regard ourselves as eagles and tortoises or turtles or something beginning with 'T', instead of our usual and fairly clear designations of runners and walkers. Snappa was heard to remark that Ramblin' just liked pointing his toes and showing off his legs.

The route, marked with a mixture of arrows, farrows, parallel lines and unknown hieroglyphics, had us bemused from time to time and the pack was well spread out at the top of the first of many hills. Slugger, as usual, had her tongue hanging out for the drink stop at the top of the first incline. She had quite a while to wait, though. Up and down we went – mostly up, it seemed, to be greeted at the drink stop by a few of the walkers and hare Ramblin'. Some people had been and gone; others were yet to arrive and the rest, including Tightarse and Pacemaker, were lost and never turned up. High Beam assured us she knew the way back to the shopping centre so a group of us followed her almost into oblivion but, backed up by Rambling Rose, she stuck to her guns and led us by a circuitous route back to the car park.

THE CIRCLE

HARE: Ramblin' stood forward to be graded and was told by Scrotus Maximus that we should have had a grader before the run to make it more manageable. White Pointer, for the runners said it was like one long false trail. GM's calculation, after grades of 9.78, 9.372, came to 9.75. The hare had to take another down-down because of arrows instead of farrows. His excuse was that he had found it hard to keep his balls moist. Scrotus's advice was to avoid powdering them before use.

STAND-IN: RTT was appointed stand-in RA and handed the jabber jaws

LTNS: Prosperous Chicken, Wet Dreams, Snappa, Scrotus, Little Prick, Puki Merah

VISITORS: Grace, who had already departed – 'Amazing, give her a week's grace'. They're all so witty

CHARGES: GM awarded himself a drink for failing to give Sir Fumbles notice of the circle – a call of “One GM drinks....” From Double D was ignored or overlooked
Too Tight was given a farewell down-down
Little Prick got the jabber jaws
Troppo tried to charge Amazing Grace but she had already received a plenary indulgence
Mountain Hawk charged High Beam with leading us astray
High Beam charged Mountain Hawk with being overly concerned about Snappa, who had returned long before us
Rock Bottom charged the hare Ramblin’ with being high falutin’ with his hares, tortoises, turtles, ninjas
Replicar charged Ramblin’ for wearing non-hash apparel, impressively athletic though it was Troppo was awarded the jabber jaws and so was Scrotus

DUMMY SHORTS:

Shadow was absent so it was a carry-over. Shadow has told GM it’s just not fair - she’s had the shorts for too long and it’s boring - eyes open for a suitable candidate next week

BIRTHDAYS: None this week

JOKERS: Dead Squid told one about an Irish priest, Indian doctor and a Pom
Cookie about a judge’s hanging rights
Mountain Hawk about a letter to the local council from a tenant
RTT – death by electric chair

SONG: Can’t remember

GRUB: Ramblin’s special soup from his student days – Thanks, Ramblin’

GENERAL BUSINESS:

February 6 will be a restaurant run at Pearl River Restaurant, City Beach – run fee will be $10 including dinner - hash drinks at normal prices
FHHH have sent a notice to Hash Hash about our run on Friday, 13 March – to be set by Dash and Double D
