THE RUN

The spectre of Dead Squid still haunts us, for he was there, like Lazarus arisen, to assert, in his full-bodied, vigorous manner that all rumours of his demise were premature and he had only been testing the waters, not actually crossing the Rubicon. What a relief to us all when he declared that “There’s nothing wrong with me. I was only having tests.” So he arrived, intact, at what was to have been his run to mark his 70th birthday later this month. It’s unfortunate that his forthcoming birthday was overtaken by a trip to the medical centre but we wish him a happy birthday, which he will spend with family in UK. He did attract quite a lot of attention, nonetheless.

Before the commencement of the run hare Cow Pat announced the good news that there would be a drink stop. Walkers would go directly there and then directly home. She then announced to us, all her neighbours and any passing potential burglar that the key to the car port would be left in the letter box. Off we went. Sybil took the horn and could be heard leading from behind, as we walkers took a direct route to the drink stop and the runners a meandering trail behind them. Wisecrack was there in mufti, another one straight from the doc’s, proudly showing pics of her excision.

Six of the runners became lost in the highways and byways of Padbury but, in true hash spirit, no-one noticed.

THE CIRCLE

Hares Blow Fly and Cow Pat stepped into the circle and apologised for usurping the recently resurrected Dead Squid’s run. Troppo commented that the cemetery was still open and that, believe it or not, was the extent of the run report.

CHARGES

Stand-in Horn Sybil

Rock Bottom represented Crusher for winning a silver medal at the geriatric athletics

Cow Pat charged Double D with hopping into the limelight in a pink bunny suit

GM charged Cow Pat with misleading evidence on the run but Blow Fly had to be a proxy

Cow Pat said it was all Blow Fly's fault – up and down, up and down

GM charged Troppo, Puki, Dash, Double D, Steamer and Brave Tart with staying on trail

Tightarse charged Dead Squid for being at the hospital and sending a Replicar to the run

In his defence Dead Squid said there would be an op on Monday, giving him a 50-50 chance - all the girls would have their opportunity on Sunday to save Dead Squid from dying a virgin

Meladjusted suggested a tourniquet round Dead Squid's neck might be efficacious

GM charged Steamer with actually doing two runs in a row

BIRTHDAYS Dead Squid

DUMMIES

The Lost Six were all suggested as suitable recipients and were at great pains to recommend one another – Double D thought Brave Tart worthy for going round in circles; Dash for continuously yelling ‘Looking for trail’ - Puki pointed the finger at Troppo for finally finding the trail - GPS was always going to be a candidate just because he likes it - Brave Tart scored a resounding victory, though.

JOKERS

Cookie told one about the guilty spouse slipping under the restaurant table

Meladjusted merely said four words’ “The Australian Cricket Team”

Pacemaker told one about Cecil winning the pools. TightArse said he was lion (lying).

Cookie said that she prefers 20-20 cricket to test matches because of its longer duration
