Run: 1429

Date: 29/6/2018

Hare: Troppo

VENUE: Barridale Park

THE CIRCLE: A slightly smaller crowd this week with only 30 turning up, this however didn't make it any easier for the GM to get them to gather around and listen up. 15MeNuts decided to test her vocal cords and bellowed out to the group to circle up and listen up, a few expressed astonishments at 15MeNuts enthusiasm to get into her stand in role.

THE RUN: The run was set in the suburb of Kingsley this week, it was well marked with lots of false trails and checks which kept the running group nicely together, and still providing the front runners with the chance to stretch their legs.

Maussie was called upon to critique the run, he seemed to be quite impressed as he kept using the word "really". He thought the run was really good, and really enjoyed it. He in particular enjoyed the use of the alley ways and gave it a score of 9.9 which was met with agreement from the circle with cheers and applause.

Horny Flasher was called upon to give the walkers perspective. She also really enjoyed it, and thought it was really good. Horny Flasher said it was well marked, and also liked the use of the alley ways. Horny Flasher gave it a score of 9.5

LTNS: This week saw the return of two of our favourite long time no sees with Cookie and Sir Fumbles returning from their travels showing off their very warm and furry head gear

Virgins: There was a virgin on the run tonight, Robert when asked who made him come tonight found it hard to reply while smiling from ear to ear, eventually he managed to explain that it was D Cell.

Milestones: There were no milestones this week although the GM tried to give Sheep Shunter his badges for 200 runs again

CHARGES: The RA expressed concern about the run and charged the hare for what the RA described as a rapist/paedophile run as it was set in and around two primary schools, the hare had apparently had at least two 10min chats to reassure locals of what he was up to.

Little Prick, had a little stumble over a chain that was in the dark charged the hare for failing to warn of low lying chains.

D Cell, who was charged by the RA, tonight faced multiple charges including being a front runner, and not checking trail correctly. The RA brought Replicar into the circle and gave him the accolade of being "The Man" and checking trail correctly.

Sardar was charged by Replicar for not calling False Trails on the run, Sardar defended himself by saying that he was calling and it was Phantom's fault for not hearing him. Replicar was not impressed with Sardar's carry on and called in Maussie to take the charge on Sardar's behalf.

Horny Flasher charged Blow Fly for not warning the walkers of the low-lying chain, which caused a few to stumble in the dark.

Rock Bottom charged D Cell and Robert for sex in the circle, could this be a "watch this space" situation? Could be if Robert's blushing is anything to go by.

BIRTHDAYS: There was only one birthday this week, De Liva rants celebrated it by bringing some extremely delightful cameral hash brown to share with the group. Shadow also helped with the celebrations by bringing a very tasty gluten free cake

GENERAL BUSINESS: Mountain Hawk asked for expression of interest for winter jackets after having been approached by several hashers during the night, she will look into it and get back with pricings. The jackets will cost $71 and they can send Mountain Hawk an email, stating size and whether they would like red or yellow trim.

Bank details: BSB 03600, Account 615552

DUMMY SHORTS: This week there were three nominees, Blow Fly for his no chain alert, Shifty for her admitting she had whiskers just like the cat she had seen on the run, and Replicar for mistakenly (although the circle wasn't totally convinced it was a mistake) going into the ladies toilets.

The eventual winner was Replicar

JOKERS: Cookie told a joke about a hospital benefactor who decided to pay a visit to see where her money was going. As the nurse showed her around the benefactor was shocked to see a patient masturbating, the nurse reassured her that it was normal and quite necessary as the patient suffered from a testicular disease and he had to masturbate several times a day to relieve the pressure. Reassured by this the tour continued, the benefactor was next surprised by the sight in another room of a nurse performing oral sex on a patient. The benefactor was disgusted by this and expressed concern at having her money going to the hospital, the nurse reassured her by saying "oh don't worry, he's on private health"

Blow Fly also told a shorter, yet equally as funny joke

Next Week's Run: RTT explained the not to come too early or late for the run to be set at Penistone Park in Greenwood as the park was used for football training

OTHER HASH EVENTS: Perth Harriettes car rally 15th July. Hamersley 40th year celebrations in November.
