Run 1449
Hare: Sybil

Date 16/11/18
Venue: Crawley

About 40 hashers for the penultimate run of this 2018 committee.

Oh what a warm balmy somewhat muggy night it was. This probably had the effect of making the Hashers somewhat lazier than normal or maybe even a little niggly and uncooperative. Now the Mosman Park Reserve is the green bit close to the water with the grass growing. So what was everyone doing in the car park across the road? Well that was where the drinks trailer was. Like bees to a hive they refused to move. It wasn't until the rather Sybillant sounds from the hare rose above the crowd's murmuring reinforced by the GM that they moved onto the grass area to circle and start the run.

The Run:

The river is so lovely to walk around but instead we took off westward toward the sea. Off through the Uni (all the students were on the grassy reserve it seemed), and up the back streets forever being tempted with false trails to the left until finally.. yes it did go left. Southward wandering to and fro until finally reaching the river and following this to the drink stop. On home along the river in the dark.

Now back at the "reserve", the spot reserved for the drinks trailer, they were too lazy to move any further. Eskies on the ground, table set up with nibbles, the pack were content where they were. Again with some cajoling and prodding and threats of tasing, the pack gathered the drinks and tables and headed back across Hackett Drive for the circle.

The run was rated as awesome 9.5 and the walk a close second at 9.

LTNS. - Low Beam (& running dog).

Tight Arse announced his last session as RA. Cheers arose from the crowd. A predictable mob. The RA had considered Hash characters. RTT must have been just cutie as an infant, D-Cell must have had a sailor boy friend - a Salt and Battery. Squid fathered a Fish called Wanda. Low Beam had raised a few eyebrows, was she a plastic surgeon?

Trying to sing his "that's the RA" song over the noise of the disrespectful pack and other revelers in the park, Tight Arse suddenly remembered he had made plans to be elsewhere and emptied his unfinished drink on the crowd before leaving. It did nothing to quiet the rabble and the noise level rose further.

Charges :- Troppo and Bell Boy taking up two parking spots, Gaylord suggested they may have caught Harriette's disease.
- D Cell new shoes, chucked the old ones, according to her there were too many grass seeds??

Dummy shorts - a carry over Beau who thought they should have pockets to be really comfortable.

No Bidets (B. Days.. Birthdays)

Jokers. RTT :- mistletoe at airport check-in : kiss goodbye to your luggage

Horny Flasher. A climbing rose - rooting a wall.

Cookies, mind readers know when they are about to be screwed.
