Run: 1456 Date: 11th January 2019

Hare: 15MeNuts and Cookie

VENUE: Winnacott Reserve, Willagee

THE CIRCLE: The map this week for a change shows the walkers trail as the Hare, was desperate to get out after a stressful week, joined the walkers this week. 34 Hashers turned up tonight for a slightly hilly course, which saw the hashers having to negotiate a variety of terrain and parks, along with some potentially dangerous wild life with drop bears on the course.

THE RUN: Tropo nervously stepped forward to critique the run, he was apparently in fear of the GM to be getting upset and making his life difficult on the ice next year, but he also wanted to make the 15MeNuts feel good, scored the run a high 9.9

Buttered Buns reluctantly left the arms of Gaylord to critique the walkers trail. She began by saying how AWSOME it was, and how good it was to have the hare with to help find trail when it was hard to find or washed out. Her score was also a 9.9

Visitors and LTNS: None this week

CHARGES: With the GM away, we had Pacemaker stepped up to do a splendid job. He began proceedings with a very caring touch by getting a few hashers to come out and take their medicine Rockbottom who had a few grazes and bruises from a fall she suffered while negotiating uneven terrain on another run, Slugger to accept medicine of Hogshit's behalf who had (if I remember correctly) Gall Stones, and 15MeNuts for surviving a car accident a few days before with only a bruised elbow.

The RA began proceedings by asking 15MeNuts to re-enter the circle to be charged with causing an accident, she was at fault by being in the stationary in the wrong place at the wrong time on the wrong day.

We only had one zero hero this week, Replicar, the circle cheered but were dubious about the authenticity of the accolade, did the RA just want a free drink?

Buttered Buns and Gaylord were charged for sex in the circle.

Maide Muffin charged the hare 15MeNuts for insulting her out on the run and continuously swearing at her, the hare had used the farrows and W for Walkers in such a manner as to look like What the Fuck, the hare embarrassingly accepted the charge.

Wenchy charged Cookie for getting more nuts, which were by the way very small (eucalyptus nuts), someone from the circle called out that maybe Cookie was tired of Sir Fumbles nuts. Cookie was quick to point out that Sir Fumbles nuts were not small.

RTT charged Franger for being too slow as he was seen running towards the walkers on one of the early cross over points for the walkers and runners, normally Franger is nowhere to be seen by the walkers.

GENERAL BUSINESS: None this week

BIRTHDAYS: Shadow, who kindly brought donuts for everyone to enjoy.

DUMMY SHORTS: Carry over as Wisecrack was not present

JOKERS: Shadow – continuing on the theme of donuts told a joke of three guys bosting about how many donuts they could fit on their penis

Maide Muffin – told a joke about girl returning home from school, who got in a bit of strife when she mentioned something about how penis’s tasted salty

Cookie – carried on the tradition of telling funny jokes, told one about a girl who asked a Dean of the school, who was giving a talk on morality, how to make it last an hour.

OTHER HASH EVENTS: Just a reminder to the committee about the committee meeting Sunday 20th January.

Next week’s Run: Brave Tart, Bramston Park Community Hall, Mattingleys Approach, Burns Beach 6028

SONG: Wenchy
