Run: 1457

Date: 18th January 2019

Hare: Bravetart

VENUE: Bramston Park, Burns Beach

THE CIRCLE: This weeks run had one trail for both the walkers and runners, it took in the old and new houses in Burns Beach, and it had the right mix of parks and hills to keep the trail interesting for the 32 hashers that turned up tonight

THE RUN: The GM picked out D Cell and Maide Muffin from the circle to critique the run.

D Cell described the run as pretty good, covering a good cross section of the new and old housing estate, she helped Hogshit with the marking of the trail as he was still not 100% and falling behind on the run tonight. D Cell also described the run as very picturesc, and loved the timing of the sunset as we reached a fantastic vantage point, right spot and the right time, to see the sun go down.

Maide Muffin also felt the walk was very good, however the walkers lost trail towards the end, and without GPS they felt even more lost, luckily the GM brought his military background to the forefront and found the trail for the walkers ensuring they all made it home safely.

Visitors and LTNS: No visitors this week, we had a couple of Long Time No See with Dosh and Steamer joining us tonight.

CHARGES: The GM wasted no time in getting the RA out to deal with the circle. The RA began the charges with Gaylord for turning out in all the gear ready for a run however choosing to stay behind to chat up the girls, Gaylord did try to make out it was the other way around that the girls were trying to chat him up, no one believed him of course. Next the RA charged Deliverance with having new shoelaces, they were however already a week old, she still however was happy to take the charge. To finish off the RA charged Big Bang for no reason other than to give him a chance to try out the splash, D Cell however found Big Bang's shoes to be too new and charged him for new shoes.

Sadar charged the RA for running the wrong way on the run, this was simply the RA trying to catch up as a result of being late. The GM had to step in and charge Sadar for violence in the circle after Sadar expressed interest in hitting the RA out on the run.

Shadow had an accolade for some of the Hash ladies including Mouth Organ, Slugger and Maide Muffin for being in the right place to see some "eye candy". The GM explained to the ladies that it should really be the hare getting the accolade for designing the run so that they could see the "eye candy"

15MeNuts charged RTT for lying and trying to upset the On-Sec by laying blame on her for the RA getting lost and hence being late.

The GM charged Maide Muffin for talking in the circle.

Hogshit gave an accolade to Slugger for being so brave last week and accepting his medicine in the circle in his absence

D Cell charged Sadar for his sexual exploitations in the carpark as he was showing off some rather suggestive moves on his car, Sadar in his defence tried to explain that at least he was faithful

GENERAL BUSINESS: The GM explained the absence of Mountain Hawk due to chest pains and Tightarse staying with her to take care of her, as luckily being due to only indigestion.

BIRTHDAYS: Gaylord and Buttered Buns

DUMMY SHORTS: Carry over as Wisecrack was not present, again

JOKERS: Maide Muffin – Ralph and Edna, Cookie – Tiger Woods, RTT – three guys at the gates of hell
