Run: 1460

Date: 8th February 2019

Hare: Rock Bottom

VENUE: 17 Sampson Rd, Kalamunda

Hares please make sure to give Sybill your run sights, we rely on her forwarding the information on so that we can advise people of the location of your runs.

THE CIRCLE: The weather was warm, and the drive was slightly on the long side, however 41 hashers couldn't wait to get the evening underway and take in the sights and hills of Kalamunda. Before the run got underway, we observed a minute silence in memory of Hogshit's mother who had very recently passed away.

Visitors and LTNS: Visitor and virgin to tonight's run was Martha, who was made to come by Call Girl and Maussie. The GM did his best for Martha to feel welcomed and included in tonight's events by asking Call Girl to translate for him. Not put off from last week's shenanigans Natalie, we think as Franger seemed unsure of her name, made another appearance tonight.

Long time no sees included Call Girl and Maussie, and Delivarants.

CHARGES: With it being the Chinese New Year, the RA began with a celebration of The Year of The Pig by calling out Hogshit, who was also joined by other Pigs including RTT, Cookie, and Minder. Next the RA called out a rather happy looking GPS, to explain why the big smile to which he explained he was footloose and fancy free for the entire weekend, I wonder what the mouse was planning while the cat was away. On a more serious note the RA next charged Franger, Call Girl and Maussie for not looking after their visitors on the run and leaving them behind. Minder was called into the circle for no hash gear, however the GM overruled this charge and Minder promptly bought some. Next the RA revealed a saucier side by charging Shadow for having a new Pussy, and she wasn't shy about showing it off too.

Phantom charged Beau and Deliverants for being Monkeys in The Chinese Year, somehow Phantom managed to get roped in too making it The Three Monkeys, which was which wasn't decided although Beau was quick to go for the See No Evil one

The GM charged Franger, Mountain Hawk, and GPS for talking in the circle, and warned Natalie that if they repeated this offence, she would have to come out to take the charge seeing Franger was the designated driver. Unfortunately for Natalie, the trio did reoffend.

Tightarse charged Sybill for short cutting, and it's not the usual short cutting offence as he was referring to her short shorts.

Puki Merah didn't really charged anyone but did bring up a peculiar point regarding Bangkok Hash, which happens to be an all-male club, recently had their annual memorial for fallen Hashers and their top fallen hasher was female, how could that be in an all-male club?

GENERAL BUSINESS: Skippy, or also known as Free Beer, mentioned Hills Hash were having a run in Woodbridge starting at 5pm, for more details go to hillshash.com

Big Bang requested that more tongs and spoons be included in the Hash cutlery supply, a few hashers mentioned they would be happy to donate some next week.

The GM called out Shadow for 500 runs and presented her with her badges. Cookie, Deliverants, and Light My Fire were called out to down down with Shadow in celebrating this occasion.

The GM mentioned that Albany were having there 700th run soon and if anyone was interested in registering their interest, he had a form they could fill in.

BIRTHDAYS: none this week

DUMMY SHORTS: With Rambling away the GM brought the dummy shorts along for a new candidate to be found. The nominees this week were Franger for forgetting his girlfriend name, Tightarse, and Cookie who was nominated by Hogshit. The unsurprising winner was Franger.

JOKERS: Cookie told a very funny joke about a guy in a bar and a gorgeous blond. The GM told a true story about Troppo's wonder cure for sunbathing
