

The town squire, the GM, called the giddy villages to gather round. Were they giddy from the excitement of making it home without getting lost, or from the evil potions provided at the drink stop? The GM called forth the towns wench, Wenchy, to say a few words for the runners. Wenchy thoroughly enjoyed the run and was very pleased to have been able to run almost all of it, she also gave accolades to the front runners for doing fish hooks and doubling back to help keep the runners together. Score 9.85

Shaft Sniffer was called forth for the walkers, he claimed it was the best walk, and perhaps the only walk in a while, that he had been on giving it a score of 9.9

Visitors and LTNS: Visitors this week were CockHunter, Shaft Sniffer and Concord. No long time no sees this week, or at least none that owned up

CHARGES: MountainHawk stepped forth and began charges by calling forth Bing Bang, to represent the victim like in the case of Geoffrey Rush, and 15MeNuts as the impartial media.

Shifty and MouthOrgan were charged for taking the wrong trail home, by taking the runners instead of walker's trail. Big Bang attempted to give himself accolades for walking the pair home, but MountainHawk quickly dismissed him from the circle.

LightMyFire was called into the circle to celebrate Thai New Year, on her way in she blessed the circle by splashing us all with water.

PaceMaker was called to stand in for the feast in honour of Saint Juleers-Rusticus?

Walking wounded this week were Troppo, Sukka, Dead Squid and Maid Muffin.

Hogshit charged BigBang for having his Black Hole photograph published around the world.

The GM charged CockHunter for no hash gear, and for wearing what she thought of hash on her t-shirt "YAWN".

GPS charged LittlePrick for being on her phone, Radar tried to come to her defence but only managed to earn herself a down down too.

General Business: For the Hashers not going away for Nash Hash, there will be a run on the 3rd of May "The Hash That Never Was", details courtesy of MountainHawk

The Hash That Never Was

Since this is a hash with no number attached to it then you don't have a run fee. It will be something different for those wanting to participate.

1. Hash Venue; Victoria Street Railway Station Mosman Park.
2. Runners leave at 7.07pm.
3. Walkers jump on the train at 7.07pm to the next station = North Fremantle and then start walking.
4. Drink stop Swan Hotel 201 Queen Victoria St, North Fremantle just before the bridge.
5. Runners and Walkers together into Fremantle to the Australian Pub Beach Street.
6. Walk to the Fremantle Railway Station and catch the train back to Victoria Street and your car.

This leaves hashers with any number of options.

1. Park at Vic Station.
2. Walkers park at North Freo Station.
3. Walkers and Runners set off from Vic Sta. - walkers go one extra stop.
4. Hashers can drive to the pubs and forget about the run/walk.
5. Some hashers can forget their cars and go by train to Vic. Sta.
6. Food is optional. Either the hasher brings their own/buys it at Coles next door to the Australian Pub or crosses the road to Munchies in the car park for Aussie Tucker. The Aussie Pub allows us to take in food.

The only down side is if it rains. If it does then we revert to a run from the house.
