Hare: Little Prick and HighBeam

VENUE: Jackadder Lake, Jackadder Way, Woodlands, 6018

THE CIRCLE: On this little night in a little Wood Land by a little Lake a little group of 27 Hashers gathered for a little run with a little drink stop. This did little to dampen the spirits of those gathered as their voices echoed out around the streets of Woodlands, the packs stayed together well with a well designed trail. Dcell described the run as a Prick of a run, only a Little one, Franger, who despite fish hooking at all the false trails, felt it was a bit Little. However felt it was worth a big score of 9.8

For a little group of walkers a little walker was summoned forth, Made Muffin, was really pleased as there were only little hills, also scored the trail highly with 9.5

Visitors and LTNS: We welcomed back Sir Fumbles and Cookie, along with Troppo, Sadar, and High Bream

CHARGES: Pacemaker was stand in GM tonight called out Mountain Hawk and Tightarse to receive accolades for setting a great run that never was last week, seeing it was never be counted we will never know how much it was enjoyed by all who didn't (or in this case did) turn up as no email was never sent as no record or photos were taken. If no one receive it please let me know it's well worth a read.

Pacemaker called out Made Muffin for do a reenactment of her walk on the train last week, whilst demonstrating her fine walking form Made Muffin explained that she was not going miss out or be accused of not walking the first section of last weeks trail, that wasn't marked or covered by the runners, so proceeded to for the journey of the train between stops to walk up and down the carriage.

Hogshit last week did his best as self appointed marketing/promotions manager, to spook up new young blood into the club. Well that's what he tells us anyway, why else would you talk to pretty young ladies serving drinks?

Made Muffin was called forth to unload her poor story of how it she almost had to scale the bar to make herself a light shandy, the bar personal had no idea

The stand in RA, Mountain Hawk, asked Made Muffin to remain in the circle as one of our walking wounded this week, she was joined by Slugger who attended her last Hash for awhile due to getting a hip operation soon.

The terrible twins, Beau and BigBang, were called out to represent two sides of one person of parliment who had recently been in the news for having been to a strip club while asking the gun lobby in America for 10 million dollars

A tall American, Ballwrinkle, was called forth to honour a fellow fallen American with the passing of the actor who played Jubacca

DCell charged Beau for being admitting to being a sucker..... are your eyes wide open yet!!! Beau was charged for sucking a black pussy..... Now get your mind out of the gutter, it was a lolly black cat

Franger charged Sadar for failing to have his hearing aids turned on tonight, Sadar seemed to be miss hearing Frangers' calls tonight.

D Liva Rants changed Hogshit for false representation, as he was taking selfies of his down downs

DUMMY SHORTS: Mouth Organ had no nominees, with the help of the little a couple of little hashers in D Live Rants and Wisecrack nominated Franger's LittlePrick ..... I bet you thought something naughty then didn't you? It was two people who were nominated Franger and Little Prick and not just one person whos parts were affected by the cold.

The winner was Little Prick, despite previous nominations this was her virgin winning of the shorts. Welcome to the club

JOKERS: D Liva Rants, Hawkeye, and TightArse gave short jokes this week, the laughter from all was anything but short or little, great jokes

Other Hash Events:

Port Douglas, this may be of interest for those who, like me, didn't make it to Port Douglas. Cookie was also kind enough to share with the circle her experience, which she rated highly.
