Run: 1472 Date: 17th May 2019 Hare: Dead Squid VENUE: 45 Noel St Hilton

THE CIRCLE: It was a small and intimate group this week with 20 hashers, it seemed to be an even split in the numbers between the walkers and runners. Missing the Hash Horn and marker, the pack had a big potential to get lost. It was a well-marked run, with two drink stops. Out on the run we Dead Squid didn't want our pace or minds hampered by the influence of alcohol, so he utilised a water fountain in Dick Lawrence Park, once home we were rewarded with a drink with Dead Squid shouting each hasher with a drink of their choice.

The stand in GM Sadar called forth 15MeNuts, who is normally to busy taking notes to comment on runs. I described the run as being well set out with the runners being kept together well through the use of false trails and checks, rewarding the hare with a 9.8.

Made Muffin was called forth for the walkers, she thought it was excellent, however she was confused as to why the walkers had a "C" on their trail, the walkers happily explained this complex letter. Ballwrinkle assisted the review for the walkers concerning it was a nice run, and scored it a 10

Visitors and LTNS: We had one visitor this week with Franger bringing along Emma, who the GM described as being an actress. Long time no sees saw Puki Merah, Maussie and Call Girl, and Bell Boy joining us again.

CHARGES: Straight off the bat the GM put a stop to anyone using the cold as an excuse for Sex In the Circle with Maussie and Call Girl, along with Franger and Emma being called forth, as they made their way to the middle of the circle Emma jumped ship for the warm arms of Bell Boy claiming Franger wasn't warming enough.

Beau was called out and charged for something which I unfortunately failed to make a note of, as I got distracted by the GM quickly grabbing the Jabber Jaws to incircle Emma and Franger, all three charged came out for their down down and song.

Call Girl and Puki Merah were welcomed back again and shared an injury to the knee area which caused their absence from hash.

Cookie received the RAC award for her impressive reversing skills she exhibited whilst reversing the trailer.

Bell Boy was called out for a welfare check, the GM was concerned that he was being too quiet and that something may have been wrong.

The stand in RA, Mountain Hawk, stepped forth and opened with commiserations for the passing of Bob Hawke, and asked Dead Squid to stepped in to accept a drink to mark the sad occasion. It was also apparently a very important day on this Friday with it being Walk to School Day, and while Mountain Hawk was sitting a buss stop watching the kids and parents walk to school, a little ditty (song) about the election came to mind. The circle overall saw the humour of the ditty which meant no harm, it did unfortunately strike a less than tasteful note with one of our hashers.

The GM charged Franger for using technology, his phone, in the circle.

Mountain Hawke and Tigtarse were wished a safe journey

Maussie was recognised with reaching his 40th run

BIRTHDAYS: None this week

DUMMY SHORTS: Carry over

With the GM and circle feeling the cold the rest of the proceedings were not covered with the GM calling for D Liva Rants, who was stand in Hash Flash, to sing the Friday song
