Run: 1473 Date: 24th May 2019 Hare: Buttered Buns and Horny Flasher VENUE: 8A Fletcher St, Applecross

THE CIRCLE: 35 Hashers gathered this week back in the medieval town of crosses and apples near the field of Gairloch, in the absence of Lord Gay (Gaylord) two of the wenches in the town, Buttered Buns and Horny Flasher, also known as sisters in crime as when they get together no good comes from it. On this fine and brisk evening, they got together and decided to in true tradition to run amuck laying a weaving trail filled with deceit for those brave, or silly, enough to be fooled with their lies and innocent puppy dog eyes.

The GM having returned from his tour of duty abroad assumed his rightful position on his throne once again and summoned the villagers together upon their return from successfully negotiating the false trials and checks. He summoned forth one of his greyhounds, Beau, who was either shy of the limelight or still in shock from the trail he had just endured as he was short on his review of the run. Beau perhaps keeping true to his speedy legs, kept is review equally quick with a simple good and a score of 9.8. Looking for more reliable fuller report the GM took his time and looked at each of his disciples in turn and pondering who would be able to fulfil this task. Finally, he called forth Pacemaker, who maybe should be called peace maker, as he gave a review that seemed to bring peace to the GM.

Pacemaker described the walk as excellent, with great large clear farrows that no one could possibly overlook or not see and knowing the great feast that awaited gave a perfect score of 10.

Visitors and LTNS: with Nash Hash over and a few returning from holidays, this week saw many Long Time No Sees with Mel Adjusted and Radar, Cowpat and Blowfly, White Pointer, Sybill and Megawatt, GPS and Rambling, Wenchy, Soixante Muff, and ? apologies for those missed

CHARGES: The stand in RA this week was Sadar, he was taking no prisoners this week and made a point of charging people who didn't sign the book, there were too many guilty of this charge so the RA called forth a selected few to serve as examples to res, charge were Franger, Bell Boy, Big Bang, Troppo, Pacemaker, Shifty

Soixane Muff was called out to explain why she was quiet and smiling so much, she explained she was simply enjoying the moment of having a great run and being surrounded by friends.

Hogshit was recognised for not having a life and completing 430 runs

GPS, Franger and Emma were called out for talking in the circle and not paying attention to the RA.

Next the RA in the excitement of charging the crowd and the feeling of joy in himself, and the gathered crowd, announced he had achieved a monumental milestone of 500 runs. The GM presented Sadar with a mug commemorating this occasion, which Sadar put to good use by using right away for his down down.

The GM, having noticed Emma was being continuously led astray by Franger, decided to save her being repeatedly charged with sex in the circle, and talking in the circle, and so he called her out to sit by his feet. This however immediately had what appeared to be opposite affect of saving her from charges, as perhaps feeling all giddy by being so close to the GM that she seemed to become quite flirtatious. The affect this was having on the GM did not escape his wench, with Radar thanking Emma, was this thanks for the possible happy ending to the night? We'll have to wait till next week to find out the answer to that one.

Having regained some composure, and control over the circle, the GM proceeded with proceedings dealing next with some lost property.

General Business:

Cookie handed a $200 profit from splash to Phantom for banking, thank to all members for supporting the club with your purchases of the splash provided.

Reminder of Fremantle Hash 800th run on Wednesday, Pirate theme

Hogshit mentioned RTT had a knee operation, and Slugger had her hip operation this week and was due out Sunday.

BIRTHDAYS: Emma will be turning 50, which we all know is the new 40, and Cookie will also be celebrating her birthday on Monday.

DUMMY SHORTS: Carry over Little Prick

Jokers: Emma was keen to seek feedback from the crowd as to whether her jokes were funny or not, as according to Franger they were not. The crowd approved of her joke, so maybe Franger does not have a funny bone in his body? Mmmmm we shall leave that one there, I think.

Emma was joined by Puki Merah, Cookie, White Pointer, and D Liva Rants in entertaining the circle with their jokes and funny stories.

Other Hash Events

A thank you email was received from Rocky City Hash thanking those who either attended or sent funds, below is a copy of the email for those of you who are interested.

As GM of Rocky City Hash Club I would like to send out a special thank you to all those Hash Clubs whose members helped us raise a record amount of $2,570.80 for our Annual Pink Breast Run!

Special thanks to all those Clubs who attended on the night and purchased Raffle tickets, the money board and of course The Booze as all proceeds contributed to this amazing amount.

Thanks to those who could not attend, but donated like Busselton and many individual Hashers, Sarah's family and friends, Hashers, neighbors and RCH3 Hashers who took tins to workplaces and those who donated money or prizes or their services to make the night so special.

Any Entertainment books sold to hashers through Xena and Laura's efforts before, during and after the PBR were donated straight to WA Breast Cancer Research Centre.

Our Club is very organized for this event and although the weather was against us it still proved to be very successful and a big thanks to a lot of our club who made this possible. For those Hashers who could not brave the weather this year, be assured there will always be cover.

We will be presenting the donation of $2,570.80 to The WA Breast Cancer Research Centre.

We are always impressed by the amount of Hash Clubs who support this run and members who travel distances just to be a part of the night.

Rocky City Hash Thank You All.
