Run: 1474 Date: 31st May 2019 Hare: Cookie VENUE: 27 Gosnells Rd West, Martin

THE CIRCLE: It was a small and intimate group of hashers this week with 29 gathered for this weeks Hash in Gosnells. It was a scenic quick run around the Shire buildings and railway line. Beau thought the run was great scoring it 9.999999, as he was able to stretch his legs and run like a gazelle, while trying to outrun a group of four boys on bikes who decided to tag along for the run. Buttered Buns was suitably impressed with the run as she found it very relaxing and easy to follow, so much so her troubles drifted away peacefully without being noticed or missed.

Visitors and LTNS: This week we welcomed back White Pointer and Shadow

CHARGES: The stand in RA this week was selected on the fly after Replicar failed to show, Blowfly stepped in and proceeded to ask for hashers who had failed to sign the book to turn themselves in or face being called out. The guilty seemed more then willing to step forth, amongst them were Beau, DCell, Big Bang, Light My Fire, Sheep Shunter, Rambling, Buttered Buns.

Radar was charged for being a palindrome in more ways then one, her name and the number of runs she had this week 323.

Shadow was asked to explain if she was now speaking in Tounge after having spent time overseas, she assured us that she still new how to speak English.

General Business: White Pointer was called forth to give a summary on Fremantle Hash 800th run on Wednesday

BIRTHDAYS: Cookie

DUMMY SHORTS: Carry over Little Prick

JOKERS: Shadow, clearly having turned over a new leaf of some sort, stepped forth to tell us a true story of her first, and last perhaps, confessional while overseas.

Cookie – husband and wife, arguing at breakfast over who was worst in bed, and who sought a second opinion.

White Pointer – child getting in trouble while playing with train set
