Hashers please make sure to pay for your drinks, the splash is not an I.O.U. set up, if you don't have the money you don't have a drink, plain as that.

Run: 1475 Date: 7th June 2019 Hare: White Pointer VENUE: Mueller Park, Subiaco 6008

THE CIRCLE: This week 40 hashers turned up confident in the RA's ability to hold off the rain until we were all done, clearly the Hare's bribe to the RA was enough as the rain held off for a well-marked run that saw the runners and walkers amuse the locals as they sat alfresco enjoying their evening with friends and family. Bell Boy was called forth, and clearly stunned at White Pointers ability to set a great run was lost for words, with some prompting from the circle, we agreed the run was good and well set, earning a score of 9. Radar had only one concern, and this was to do with the other walkers rather than the trail, as when on back was called, the walkers kept going rather than turning back, whichever way the hashers eventually chose to go they all found their way home. Radar scored the walk 9.8.

Cookie, who had supplied the lovely lasagne, and Shadow, who had supplied the salads and hot potatoes, were recognised as co-hares for the evening and joined White Pointer in a down down

Visitors and LTNS: We didn't have any visitors this week, we did however have a few long times no sees with Bigus Dickus, Head Banger – Mouth Organ stepped in as proxy as Head Banger had departed prior to the circle. We also welcomed back Slugger, who was looking almost well enough after her hip operation to be able to head out with the walkers.

CHARGES: The RA was finally back from his leave of absence and was feeling refreshed and on top of the world, this clearly didn't sit well with Cow Pat as instead welcoming back the RA she apparently insulted him while out on the run. The RA was brought crashing back down to reality when Cow Pat claimed to have lowered herself to his standard, in hind sight this was probably more of a compliment as she was referring to his ability to score a drink on the run, as she too had managed to score a wine from one of the many people out in Subiaco this evening.

The RA noted a few amusing run numbers with Big Bang 88, Cow Pat with 181, and the RA himself with 1090.

Animule was recognised for being almost a zero hero with 599 runs

Shadow was charged for spilling her drink on the sign in book

The GM charged Cow Pat for failing to call back the front runners to the impromptu drink stop

Blowfly charged Bigus Dickus and Bell Boy for wearing shorts.

General Business: A sad note this week with Cookie notifying the circle that the splash fund was $50 down last week, the GM expressed great concern at this and asked that it be rectified by next week's run.

BIRTHDAYS: Made Muffin

DUMMY SHORTS: High Beam brought the shorts along tonight so that they may reign supreme once more. Tonight, we had two nominees with Shadow and Animule, and despite the GM's attempts to sway the weak voting the winner this week was Shadow.

JOKERS: Cookie – weight loss. Rambling – burglar, a parrot and Jesus. Made Muffin with a tale of three brothers

Other Hash Events: Despite the tights arriving there is a problem with them, they currently according to Mountain Hawk seem to resemble long johns, so they are not available just yet and we ask for your continued patience while it's sorted out

Next weeks run: Hogshit and Hi Beam, 10 Hinderwell St, Scarborough. Parking outside the house is limited, there is more parking available at a car park nearby.

Song: Animule and Slugger
