Run: 1477

Date: 21 June 2019

Hare: GPS

VENUE: Canning Vale

THE RUN: GPS told us it would be reasonably short because of the time of year and that's what a lot of the walkers like, anyway. True to his word, we came across the promised drink stop before the usual suspects started saying "Where's the drink stop? I'm gasping" We had to cross a couple of main roads as penance, though. The drink stop might have been a bit overstaffed this week, with Rambling Rose, Slugger and Shadow being in attendance but the latter two are walking wounded so Rose undertook the role of guardian as well as barmaid.

THE CIRCLE: Yes, it's true – 21 June is the summer solstice, the shortest day of the year and heralds the beginning of winter. That's why it's so nice to arrive at a welcoming venue with a large covered area and wood fire. I've had a peek at the venues for the next few weeks and they are all good for winter runs – a restaurant run next week and then three runs from houses.

GM called Bell Boy to comment on the run for the runners and he declared the run to be good – all went well and deserving of a score of 9.

Mouth Organ spoke for the walkers – great walk, great drink stop, 9.5.

Visitors and LTNS: Spackle, Wisecrack, Troppo, Soixante Muff, Suka

CHARGES: The RA wet his shoes on the spillage in the circle but was unable to find the culprit so just got on with the job of bringing out the ever-growing group of walking wounded – Shadow, Wisecrack, Slugger, and overlooking a few others who decided to keep their afflictions and recent repairs to themselves.

RA decided to call out the tin men – RTT – tin knee, Bell Boy – tinnitus, Sir Fumbles - two knee or not two knee, Cookie – kneedy, Slugger - Hypocrates

Big Bang was charged for living in the past and writing his run number in Roman numerals. Shadow reached 510 runs, Mountain Hawk 444, Call Girl 50, Maussie 44.

GPS was invited to have a sit down and became so quiet the GM almost forgot he was there. Tightarse suggested that it's because GSP is dyslexic.

Deliverance charged Franger with running backwards, looking for his coxcomb.

RA charged Ballwrinkle with hanging around but Ballwrinkle declared himself in a state of confusion caused by RA's juxtaposition of his name with Bell Boy and Big Bang. Maybe we should call him Big Ball Bang.

Sir Fumbles was invited to reinforce his charge against Suka & Mouth Organ but we couldn't remember what the original charge had been so that was a fizzer.

Tightarse charged Mountain Hawk with worrying so much about the hash whilst in Greece she had to stay in HHH accommodation.

GENERAL BUSINESS: Three samples of the long-expected leggings will be available for assessment on Tuesday. If they are acceptable there will be a re-run of the whole order. The saga continues but hope is not lost.

Shadow has stepped in as the organiser of a weekend in Rotto on 16 & 17 August. She has booked for up to 18 people at the moment. We should check out special discounts – Seniors, RAC membership, etc.

BIRTHDAYS: None worth mentioning

DUMMY SHORTS: Shadow made another vain attempt to pass the shorts on to her dear friend, Deliverance, who has managed to avoid them all this time. However, in spite of several other possibilities being offered we were stuck with another carry-over.

JOKERS: High Beam, Horny, Cookie, Tightarse – more on offer but no time

SONG: Brave Tart

Next week's run: 1478 Bell Boy & Horny Flasher - Restaurant Run at Tong's Kitchen, 17/17 South Street, Kardinya 6063.

Lots of people have already paid. Please pay Hash Cash $10 at BSB 036000, account number 615552 with Hash name as reference before Wednesday so that the funds can be cleared. This run is subsidised by the club.

Wine drinkers please bring your own glass to avoid corkage.
