“The Breakout Edition”

The Prelude

The great invasion from the North of the Covids marching through our country led by the Great Covid.

The Great Covid – reputedly the nastiest organism on the planet is shown reviewing his troops. Such gall, such nastiness has never seen on the surface of Earth for hundreds, for not thousands but millions of years.

Before the Storm

There was a secret group of rebels – the Friday Nighters – who decided to resist the Great Covid and his minions. They were a singly-minded group who have trained for years for such calamities. Their training evenings prepared them for such eventualities.

Secret photo of their training regime before the great invasion by the Covids is seen below. Only the strong will survive. Gruelling marathon drinking sessions and sporadic runs were the order of the day to prepare for the Great Scourge.

Covert meetings to discuss plans.....

Training for the day when they will be called. Note even when preparing for the future holocaust that was to come, our heroes of the future had social distancing techniques refined into a fine art!

Uncertain Times Page 2 The Resistance Gets Into Action

Early heroes

They formulated plans of action and drew maps and drawings of what to do to overcome the Covid Scourge.

A scratchy picture of one of the first “liberation maps”

used by the Friday Nighters. Known only by their code names Wise Crack and Spackle, they risked detention and isolation in the most dire of circumstances – at home!!

Capture

The leaders of the Friday Nighters at their most heroic urged calm, resolution and to buy toilet paper. [Just in case!!]

The leader of the Friday Fighters exhorting “we will fight them on the bleachers, and in the camp grounds Blah blah...”

“.... We will never give up!!”

Friday Fighters showing their muscle and future determination!

Into Isolation....

A rare photo of Friday Fighters going into isolation flanked by a hated Covid guard.

This page brought to you by Uncle Trump’s Disinfectant and Syringes.

For something that might work....

Health warning:

Do NOT inject your pet with this stuff!! Maybe your local US president will find it useful.

In Lockdown

A rare picture of a clandestine meeting of our escape committee planning the Great Covid Escape. Note the ever-present, horrible, threatening Covid guards.

Sorry, wrong picture – this one!

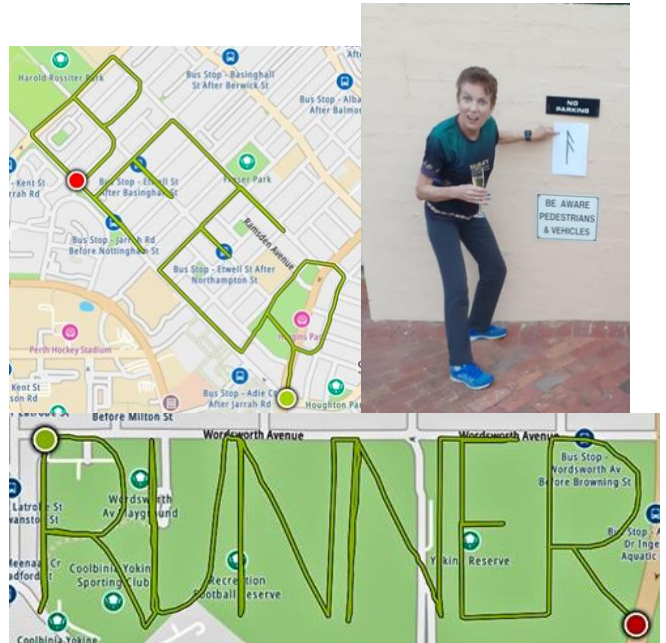

No, not that one! This one:

The camp printing press and internationally famous and accredited newspaper “Uncertain Times” that exhorted the FH3 to rebellion. The famous letterhead:

Maps were drawn and distributed for the Great Escape. The mapping expert only known by her code name, D Cell, inspired other FH3 Fighters to follow her lead. One of the last photos of the famous D Cell found in this publication. In this photo she is luring Scourge investigators up the garden wall. Clever girl!!

Escapes were frequent. Many of the escapees were brought back to the fold.

Other heroes

Escape manuals printed by the famous escapologist, Hog Shit.

Editorial

This is a special edition brought to you by the Uncertain Times Special Editions Unit. It is a photographic record of the fight by the Friday Nighters later to be called the Friday Honestly Honoured House-bound (FH3) Fighters.

This edition is a record of the struggle of FH3 against almost insurmountable odds. But the forces of selecting the right beer and saying stupid things to say in the circle won through!!

The heroes of the desperate Covid Occupation will be remembered for a long time! But what we did in that time will probably disappear into the oblivion. Note the example of our political leaders. Ed.

Clandestine Operations....

Little old ladies carrying sledgehammers in their bras started the trend to breakdown the barriers. Known only as Shadow and Made Muffin, these two heroes were the perpetrators of public disobedience campaign in the vein of Gandhi and Mandela. [By the way Gandhi and Mandela own the Lotus Leaf Indian restaurant in Two Springs (or was it Three Rocks?) Ed.]

And Suddenly They are OUT!

FH3 supporters celebrating the release from being cooped up and isolation under terrible conditions.

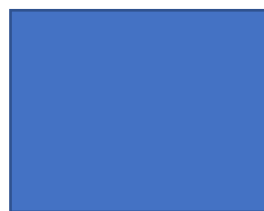

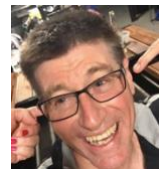

Uncle Animule (aka Moses) leading the freedom-loving FH3 supporters into the promised land.

Heroes of the Great Covid Occupation

The intrepid Phantom. Reporter extraordinaire who supported the cause of freedom from the Great Covid Scourge.

Conversation overheard in a dunny: "Boo Hoo!? Oh! It's Beau. Was he the guy that took the grainy shots??? I'm just talking to my sources.... How'd ya get the photo? Dunno."

Professor Troppo – the bloke that told us about fartology. The sort of thing needed for inspiration – illuminating topics, and down to earth information.
