Run: 1547

Date: 22nd January 2021

Hare: Suka and BJ

Venue: Beecroft Park, City Beach

What a glorious area for 31 hashers to meet and meander through the streets and the various reclaimed dunes of City Beach. Every so often a glimpse of Perth's beautiful coast as the sun went down in the West, walking past mansions of varying heights, sizes and selling prices. Tucked away in between these huge edifices were little old everyday homes that have been there for many years. Beautiful gardens opposite very neglected front yards. Miznomer worried as yours truly traipsed through reclaimed dunes and not sticking to the paths, sure that I would damage plants that her rates would have to pay for. A delightful drink stop overlooking the Indian Ocean. So I'm absolutely gobsmacked that this beauty was not alluded to in the walkers and runners reports. Blowfly was called on first but he'd blown off somewhere, so up came Sir Fumbles and Sardar to give their take on the run. Honestly where were you two when the English lessons were happening, hiding out behind the bike sheds?? We got "best walk this week" and "great run, up and down hills, horrible stairs". Mind you GM only called Sardar up to shut him up, he was making up for missed circles by making enough noise to wake the deaf elderly living up on Kalinda Drive.

Suka was called on to introduce her two visitors, Steve and Helga; Helga impressed RTT with her knowledge of Manchester United that silly game they play kicking that round ball. Then a down down for our LTNS Bellboy who had been off playing his own drum somewhere.

RA stepped up to call in the sinners, and who else to start with but our Beau who just can't keep out of trouble, he was seen out on the run doing some strange dance steps, he claimed he was on antibiotics for toothache, but sounds like he might have hit the drugs a bit hard. Tightarse was next up to the pulpit, RA felt that he should have pursued a different career of photographers model, it was noted that Tightarse walked most of the run, but the minute he spotted the paparazzi he was seen running, poser!

White Pointer was called in to show his wound from being bitten by a fellow shark, White Pointer claimed it was a love bite, and yes the talk went towards the gutter at this point, Replicar affirming White Pointer's penis probably reached his knee, hence having a love bite that low. Now White Pointer is a shark and sharks happen to have two penes, and they are not very long, White Pointer may be wishing he was a Blue Whale, they have a penis that averages about 1.5 metres.

RA then opened the circle for confession time, and no surprise, Troppo raced towards the pulpit to confess that he had told everyone he was walking but owned up to running some of the way, such shame. This was followed by Beau, Hogshit asked him who had the horn, Beau confessed that he just couldn't be horny and flash. Tightarse called Replicar in to confess how he knew the size of White Pointer's penis. Let's face it anyone that wanders around the streets of City Beach on a Friday night with a bow on his head and plaits falling to his nipples has got to be a very astute person and must know lots of things.

As no heroes joined us tonight, Shadow was called out to consider getting a life with 555 runs.

Animule joined Butterbuns in celebrating their birthdays. A special 69er for BB this year.

Now it's time to put the serious shoes on with some general business;

- A special thought goes to Wisecrack and Spackles as Wisey's journey with her lung cancer takes some more dips
- Meladjusted couldn't join us tonight he was recovering from an angiogram
- On Sec reminded hashers to check the flyers attached with the rag for upcoming events
- D Cell announced that she is getting shorts and trousers to match our shirts, and that sleeveless and long sleeve shirts will also be available, with some Club subsidy

The stand up comedians for tonight were D Liva Rants, Tightarse, RTT and Megawatt

Ballwrinkle has decided to keep the dummy shorts another week; he obviously had a better offer and didn't bless us with his presence.

Suka was called in for a late sombrero charge for teasing the GM.

Phantom lead the jovial hashers into the Friday song, and we enjoyed a lovely meal of sausages and Thai salad provided by Suka and BJ.

The Committee decided unanimously that as COVID is still present in the community, that members are requested to bring their own cutlery and plates to Friday Hash from now on. For those who forget or are visitors and do not have plates or cutlery, a small number of suitable plates and cutlery will be held by Splash for these circumstances.
