Run: 1548

Date: 29th January 2021

Hare: ButterBuns

Venue: Applecross

31 Hashers fought the traffic hoping to get a glimpse of how the other half live in Applecross, but this was not to happen, our hare, Butterbuns, decided to do a re-run of City of Joy, without Patrick Swayse ☹️, and take us through the slums of her fine suburb. A lovely warm night for a stroll or run, but I am not sure if I am supposed to be getting a message here, Friday Hash appears to be coming religious, we might have to move our runs to Sunday, we have introduced the pulpit to our circle and now we are having drink stops at the Church!! Next we'll be getting charged for breaking the 10 Commandments!

GM called the hare into the circle to face her fellow sinners, Troppo was called in to give a runners perspective, GM thought Troppo had shown great inertia (Troppo thought someone had changed Phantom's name to Irsha, but GM being the science teacher he is enlightened Troppo as to the full meaning of inertia). Not only did Troppo run with great inertia he also gave a report with great inertia and he enjoyed the run and drink stop. Shadow must have read last week's Rag, as she stepped forward to give a report for the walkers and used every big word she knows to describe the run i.e pleasant, picturesque, beautiful.

RA stepped up to the pulpit and yes it was time to remind these sinning hashers about the ten commandments, Troppo being the first called in to repent, thou shalt not steal Troppo, does he think it's a poor man's run, stealing water from other hashers. Made Muffin came out of solitary confinement to join us, and was seen flying along the walk with super inertia, yes Made Muffin was puffin

On Sec interrupted the RA to remind him to bring in visitors and LTNS: Helga must be bored at home, she joined us again, and several LTNS ventured back to the congregation: Spackles, Wisecrack, 15 MeNuts and Made Muffin (who disappeared just as her name was called so On Sec put herself forward as a proxy, being the closest in height to MM),

RA confessed to something about a confessional being used as a toilet, On Sec was having to adjust her hearing aid to hear everything, haven't you noticed how talkative short people are, was that you Butterbuns and Made Muffin behind me chatting? Mind you On Sec got her uppance when she made a short person comment standing in between Butterbuns and Horny Flasher, ouch!

RA opened the pulpit for confessions and guess what, Troppo didn't come up, he was beaten to the altar by White Pointer who confessed to lying about his leg wound last week, he said it wasn't a shark it was Made Muffins daxie, thou shalt not lie White Pointer. Did I hear you say that you wished D Cell's flight was further delayed as she asked you 'how would you like?'

GM charged Shifty who was heard telling fellow hashers that they should follow the farrows or they will get lost duh, isn't that what hash is about? Shifty thou shalt not argue with the GM, you almost got double down downs.

Charges were coming fast and furious, Butterbuns wanted a confession as to who moved their car while she was out slaving over the drink stop, D Cell was happy to step forward as she arrived late from Port Hedland and thought it was her, but Butterbuns thou shalt not falsely accuse fellow hashers, looks like it could have been her neighbour.

D Cell charged Beau for giving his balls away not sure which Commandment this came under (thou shalt not fornicate)but D Cell let everyone feel Beau's ball, nice sharing D Cell.

I have to mention at this point the inertia that went into each hash song from the two church choir ladies, Horny Flasher and D Cell, there were some loooovely loooong nooootes.

And the charges just kept coming, High Beam charged GM for stealing figs, however, it would appear that GM had been stopped from stealing a fig by a righteous local lawn waterer, but GM knew someone that had broken the commandment and called On Sec in, who gleefully confessed to the yummy fig she stole, thou shalt not steal On Sec.

Cowpat wondered what Suka and BJ had been up to lately that had tired them so much, as they were called in and charged for leaning.

We had a couple of zero heroes-Dead Squid 640 and Cowpat 220

Now time to read the Psalms of general business:

- D Cell got mixed up thinking it was Jokers and tried to out a hat on HogShit as he reminded hashers that he will accommodate the different drinking tastes of his fellow hashers, having added port to his supplies after receiving some feedback, encouraged all to speak to him, he will listen, he only turns his hearing aid off when Slugger asks him to put the rubbish out.
- There must be a special on surgery at the moment, Wisecrack recovering from bits cut out of her, and Mouth Organ heading home today from hospital after having bits cut out. Meladjusted hasn't had any bits cut out (Phew), but his wings have been clipped with restrictions on exercise, your fellow hashers are thinking of you all.

- Suka had some lost property, a wine glass left behind last week, White Pointer said it was too small to be Ramblings, but you never know as no-one else claimed the chalice. Bit tough when you've been absent for a couple of weeks and you still get picked on Rambling!
- On Sec gave out dates for Perth Crankers at Lake Lechenaultia 6th February, Hills Hash 2001, 28th February at Mundaring Weir Rise Garden, Blue Dress run 2nd March and Poorman's Nash Hash at Cervantes 19th March.

No Birthdays, but Replicar had his 40 year unmarried anniversary

Made Muffin stepped up to share her Centipede joke, receiving flak from the congregation for reading her joke, she might forget jokes but at least she remembers to turn up every Friday.

Ballwrinkle handed the dummy shorts to GM due to his change of career as a nurse; D Cell outshone all dummies for arriving late, blaming her delayed flight, then ran the run backwards.

Phantom likes to lurk in the shadows but GM is onto her and called her forward to merrily lead us in our Friday song.

On On

D Liva Rants (On Sec)

The Committee decided unanimously that as COVID is still present in the community, that members are requested to bring their own cutlery and plates to Friday Hash from now on. For those who forget or are visitors and do not have plates or cutlery, a small number of suitable plates and cutlery will be held by Splash for these circumstances.
