Run: 1550

Date: 26th February 2021

Hare: Beau

Venue: Harold Boas Gardens, West Perth

Beau chose a lovely central picturesque spot in West Perth for 37 Friday hashers to congregate and share their exciting weeks' news with each other. This hashing must be pretty good for the health, I heard Rambling mention that she was going to do the full walk this week and Wisecrack was out there trotting along next to Spackles, Meladjusted checked there weren't any heart taxing hills before heading off and getting his fitness up for his up and coming op. Great work guys, and here's woosy On Sec missing runs recently due to a pulled butt muscle, even if it was sore and the rest did me good . ☺

Runners headed east and walkers headed southwest, while On Sec and Beau disappeared into the shadows, sounds exciting but it was just a quickie set up of the drink stop. Beau showing much multi skilling then rushed off to lead the walkers on some short cuts. Spackles and Wisecrack arrived first at the drink stop to find yours truly showing signs of madness, jumping up and down, hitting her legs, her back, her arms, her face, cursing, but soon discovered On Sec didn't need a strait jacket, mosquito spray would have solved the problem. Thanks to Wisey and Spackles for their help as the walkers arrived before the drinks were set out.

GM rounded up the troops and called the Hare into the circle, Made Muffin was asked to tell us how she found the run other than following the trail; she was really looking forward to this run as she knows there are not a lot of hills in West Perth and was enjoying herself out there until she got to the broken escalator, yep no hills but a shit load of steps. Replicar then stepped in to let the Hare know that he found the run not quite magnificent, but close, he enjoyed seeing Franger back to knock off all the falsies. Even Frangers have their uses.

Along with Franger returning to the Friday frolickers after LTNS, we also had Porno King, Sheep Shunter, Crusher, Rockbottom, 15 Me nuts, RTT and Impersonator cum along to see what they have been missing. RTT needs to cum more often he's lost the skill of a good down down.

RA confessed to having an accident with the pulpit, he will be doing a bit of carpentry this weekend. But it didn't affect the charges, and yes our faithful chargee was called forth, Beau was asked why he provided cat piss at the drink stop, did he think we were a pile of pussies? Hope the garden flourishes from the bubbles poured on it. HopPing Mad was next in, she is still learning everyone's names and thought she was clever looking on the back of Hash Cash's shirt for her name, no HopPing mad Phantom is not called 'Didya'

Sardar was then called to confess, he was charged with breaking one of the commandments "thou shalt not covet thy neighbour"-Sardar was soooo jealous of the kangaroo spotted on the run with the rather large testicles, although Sardar reckoned it was D Cell who was obsessed with them, she couldn't take her eyes off them.

Then it was time for charges from the circle, Hogshit was first up, he had heard some caterwauling from the roadside, and thought RA was having some strange religious experience, he was heard talking in tongues. "Me cago en todo lo que se menea" What one does when one drops the pulpit! Cowpat thought it was time for D Cell to go to Specsavers, apparently the two randoms D Cell picked up on the run didn't quite have George Clooney genes. Must have been the testicles that clouded D Cell's judgement.

GM showed what bravery is all about, actually I think there is a fine line between bravery and stupidity, as he charged Misnomer for calling out to someone on the run called Robert. GM felt he was safe half the way home as Animule was sharing a lift, but the second half of the trip could pose problems.

D Cell charged HighBeam, she heard her confess to Beau that there was not enough champagne to make her cum. Butter Buns told us about the lovely new car she has recently purchased, her pride and joy, but not everyone at Friday Hash felt the same about her new car, Sardar felt it was an easy car to cut off at the lights as he crossed a lane in front of BB to turn.

Highbeam finished the charges by reminding Crusher and Rockbottom about the last time they had a run at this park when they hid her cake so they could eat it all themselves.

No Birthdays but a couple of zero heroes celebrating tonight: RTT 1440 and Sardar 560

GM gave our Hash Cash and accolade for her soliciting skills, every week shaking everyone down for their gold coins.

General Business:

- High Beam-stand-in Trail Mistress beseeched hares to cum forth as March 19th still waiting for a mighty hare. Thanks to Cookie who stepped forward

- Thursday 4th April Bunny Run SOP $15

Great jokes were shared by Cookie, Rockbottom and Meladjusted. I thought there was another joke going to be told in the circle, as I could hear over the top of heads Troppo and Replicar bantying about who does it better, at least I think they were talking about a joke.

Beau was reluctant to hand over the dummy shorts, he hadn't run and wanted to keep them so that he could hand them over all sweaty next week. But others came to the rescue with nominations, GPS was the dummy who nominated the GM for being a dummy for charging his better half in the circle, so charge was reversed to GPS; Radar nominated Made Muffin for finding it somewhat difficult to open her car with her torch; then Beau got his hopes up of retaining the shorts as Meladjusted renominated him for being a dummy for falling off the playground equipment. Cheers were close between Made Muffin and Beau, GPS cheered for himself; if you could picture that lone wolf baying at the moon, that was GPS. Well Made Muffin was the lucky winner and her fellow chargees and songmistress went down on their knees so that Made Muffin could feel at one with her fellow hashers, as she battled to get into the dummy shorts, that suddenly became dummy longs.

Franger footed his way to the fore to give us the full fulfilment of his falsetto frog fart voice as we followed him in the Friday song.

Beau forgot to mention that On Sec provided the food for his run, must have been that quickie that frazzled his thoughts. And some hashers were concerned about the strange onlooker sitting to the side of the circle, but Cowpat showed her bravery as she approached the nosey bastard and in true hash style invited him to join the circle. But On Sec's helper was too shy, he was just here to deliver the food.

Quote of the day- “Men at 25 play football, men at 40 play tennis, men at 60 play golf. Have you noticed that as they get older their balls get smaller”-that kangaroo must have been a young one.

The Committee decided unanimously that as COVID is still present in the community, that members are requested to bring their own cutlery and plates to Friday Hash from now on. For those who forget or are visitors and do not have plates or cutlery, a small number of suitable plates and cutlery will be held by Splash for these circumstances.
