Run: 1555

Date: 9th April 2021

Hare: Rockbottom and Crusher

Venue: Kent Street Weir, Wilson

How lovely it is to be away for so long and come back to such a lovely welcome from such wonderful people, gosh even Shadow frightened the shit out of me coming up and giving me a cuddle. Our esteemed GM is still away and it is not like our organised GM to leave his spot uncovered, it appears that someone did get an email request which was only seen on Saturday, so guess who's helping out next week. But hashers being the wonderful people they are it was not difficult to get a stand in GM, Cookie had an extra drink, to remuster her courage and take on the role, many thanks Cookie for both that and for being stand in On Sec.

The hare was asked to explain her run: some on chalk, some on lime, some on the right, some on the left, Sardar was paying good attention and asked if it is all on chalk, but the main thing everyone got right was yes there was a drink stop, and what a yummy drink stop it was, a cocktail resembling a Marguerita.

Before going away we were walking in daylight, however, many commented through the walk how dark it had suddenly become, didn't help that RA had forgotten to ask the moon to come up.

Meladjusted was called up to give a walkers report, and he found the walk well marked and thoroughly enjoyed his first full walk since his operation, well done Meladjusted. GM had to ignore some rowdy interjector who wanted to give her report on the walk as well, Princess who?? Phantom then stepped forth to give a runner's perspective, now we all know that Troppo sweats a lot of that salty stuff each Friday night, well Phantom was not to be outdone, loved the run and managed to sweat out all the sweet things that she had devoured over Easter.

We are missing our song mistresses, the singing was atrocious, but I guess we are not a singing club with a drinking problem! But we could easily be the other way around.

Up stepped the LTNS- On Sec, RTT, Sheep Shunter, Light My Fire and Dead Squid

Our esteemed RA started the charges with one on Hopping Mad, was wondering what her disability was, as she had parked in an ACROD parking. Then onto Replicar who spent the run looking for the light, as he had forgotten his.

Confession time was started with Made Muffin, she confessed that she was having sex, but didn't want to incriminate herself by telling us who with. How selfish, rubbing it in for those that aren't getting any. Troppo then confessed that he has a problem with the City of Canning, as they moved Manning Road, and he had trouble getting to the hash location, but then owned up to driving with his sunglasses on, good one Stevie!

Then the charges went to the circle, Meladjusted was first charging Made Muffin, for showing off her daily exercise regime on FB, he felt she was an over achiever, but Phantom stepped up and turned it rightly so into an accolade, great work Made Muffin, obviously has improved her sex life too!

On Sec heard a hasher wandering through the carpark looking for her car and yet again we have another torch pusher, Buttered Buns owned up and stepped in for her down down.

Oh dear then it was that 3 letter word again as Tight Arse called Dead Squid into the circle declaring how good Dead Squid is looking after his trip over East, how he had lost weight as he was also having sex, gee I don't think MM has been over East lately Phew! And Tight Arse told the circle about the Dolly Parton diet he'd been on, Dolly did not write "Joelene, Joelean" about you TA, nice try.

On Sec then made a total arse up with the zero heroes, although I tried to blame Meladjusted as I went off his sheet and not the book, but there is always a silver lining as Phantom, Dead Squid and Wenchy got to share a down down with the real zero hero Replicar who had 1160 runs.

Made Muffin, Rockbottom, Meladjusted and Tight Arse were our four merry makers as they shared their latest jokes with us.

Buttered Buns stepped forward in the dummy shorts and nominated herself as carry over for the prized piece of clothing, for mistaking her torch for her keys, and she figured she was a sure winner if she also nominated GPS cos he never gets to wear them. But both were outdone by the cripple who wasn't a cripple, Hopping Mad got the prestigious award for parking in the wrong space!!

General Business:

- On Sec advised everyone that Hogshit has registered FH3 if anyone wants to take their own refundables in, they just need to quote: C10446611 (save it in your phone)
- There were a few murmurs about the FH3 weekend away, On Sec assured everyone we would find out, there is a sub committee working on it.

Radar lead us into the Friday song, and fortunately our singing had improved by this stage, and we went on to enjoy a lovely meal provided by Rockbottom and Crusher.

The Committee decided unanimously that as COVID is still present in the community, that members are requested to bring their own cutlery and plates to Friday Hash from now on.
