Run: 1560

Date: 21st May 2021

Hare: Replicar

Venue: Nollamara

I headed over to Nollamara along with 35 other hashers keen for some excitement; car chases, house break ins, hoons, damn Replicar did you forget to tell the locals we were cuming, it was so quiet and peaceful, even Shadow was reasonably quiet. The locals slowed right down when passing us on the street in their unsouped up cars. Not even a black kangaroo paw in sight, I'll leave you to wonder why I mentioned those, an extra down down for anyone that tells me first next Friday.

We wandered amicably around the streets, Replicar had done a sterling job to keep the runners and walkers together, it was only Replicar moaning in my ear that made me realise that the runners had taken off at the end of the run.... "I should have done longer falsies, I should have taken them down there, this part is boring on the main road", GM should have called Repy in to critique his own run, he was good at it. I comforted him along the way, "hey as long as the pizzas are good you will be forgiven any transgression". And they were good.

GM was seen bustling the RA along so that the pizzas wouldn't go cold, but RA was keeping true to his habit and taking his own time to collect data on his sinners. Once the circle formed, GM called Light My Fire in to give a walker's perspective, although she could have done both, she was seen out there running....show off! She reported that the run was good and well-marked, and Wenchy also had some kind words about the "brilliant" run which kept those front runners in check with plenty of false trails.

GM introduced all the LTNS, Messy, Wet Dreams, Sheep Shunter, Light My Fire, RTT, Mountain Hawk and Tightarse.

No wonder RA needed time to prepare for the circle with all the zero heroes, Cookie 1160, Sardar 560, D Cell 260, Wet Dreams 130. Then a biggie for Meladjusted with 400 runs, he called Cookie and Buttered Buns in, then either ran out of friends or was trying to make up for his dinner choice by also calling Radar in to drink with him.

RA started his sermon with charging Sardar with making sexual noises out on the run, he tried to fob it off on Sybil..... hello what were you two doing out there in the dark? White Pointer was more souped up than the local cars he also joined the runners, must have been practising chasing girls (well maybe old ladies) in Queensland. You just can't take D Cell and Beau anywhere, they were charged for destroying private property tut tut! And doesn't Shifty know it's shameful to boast, she was doing the old FIGJAM telling anyone that was listening that she was the best trail follower ever.

Then it was over to confession time, Meladjusted, having now taken over from Troppo as the lead confessor, spoke of his romantic side, having taken Radar to a show and out to dinner, the dinner part being free pizzas at hash.

Hopping Mad as usual having a few difficulties with hashers names, called RA "my father", which needless to say brought on many catcalls from the circle renaming RA Cardinal Pell. On Sec charged Mountain Hawk for not having trained Tight Arse to dress himself in aaaaaaIIIIIIII the years of their marriage, he had to get Menstrual Disorder to help him after the run, she did it well, one handed as she had Mini Disorder in the other hand.

TightArse charged Wenchy for being on the game around Nollamara, she predicted the path of the run, knowing the area well. Then the final charge came from Mountain Hawk on Sybil, having not seen each other for several weeks Mountain Hawk was touched by the effervescent greeting from Sybil, however, Sybil with Mountain Hawk still firmly ensconded in her arms, just wanted to know where her horn was, and not the one under the habit! At least I hope it wasn't that one that Mountain Hawk had!

As there were no birthdays, On Sec thought it would be timely to explain a decision made at a Committee meeting about gifting, no not birthday present.... It was unanimously voted to get a supply of wine goblets of different colours that were made of a material that could be brought to hash, after several big runs a hasher could amass a whole set. D Cell assured everyone they were lovely and she will bring a sample once she has picked them up.

Three jovial hashers amused us with their tales, Made Muffin telling us about Graeme who enjoyed watching his money grow, Cookie enlightening us about some poor blokes loss of smell, and Meladjusted.....well that one might have fallen flat about the RA.

GPS told me last week he was going to cum and strongly vie for the dummy shorts, but he didn't turn up, and the pizzas had well and truly arrived so once again Beau went home a happy chappy, sporting his favourite pants. Which were an improvement on the pink lycra!

Wenchy hadn't eaten since lunch time, so she couldn't wait for the GM to choose a choralist, she merrily started blasting out the tunes of Friday Hash.

The Committee decided unanimously that as COVID is still present in the community, that members are requested to bring their own cutlery and plates to Friday Hash from now on. For those who forget or are visitors and do not have plates or cutlery, a small number of suitable plates and cutlery will be held by Splash for these circumstances.
