Run: 1562

Date: 4th June 2021

Hare: Meladjusted

Venue: Lynwood

Some intriguing things have happened on June the 4th in the past, the oldest Chinese recording of a solar eclipse was made in 781 BC. But none can match the event of 4th June 2021 with 30 hashers converging on Lynwood to enjoy unprecedented mirth.

The RA had produced a resplendent night, clear skies although a tad chilly and our hare for the night, Meladjusted, gave the instructions on his run, the run was within a small circle of Lynwood, too far to the west and you'd hit Cottesloe, too far to the East and you'd be on the edge of the Super Pit, and he made sure that we didn't go further south than Leeming Park Chinese restaurant and please turn back on the north side if you are near the Lobster Shack. But just in case, On Sec was handed a map, much to the mirth of Dead Squid on the trail who spotted On Sec looking at the map upside down. Within those restraints a lovely walk was enjoyed, as Beau reported, he was happy to have missed any low lying branches, unlike others, and loved the open spaces at the end of the run when he managed to get some clarity. Animule was hunted out from the pack of hashers to give a walkers report, he might have missed parts of the trail but the trail certainly couldn't miss Animule in his fluoro attire. He gave a very descriptive report of the run "it was good".

While we were enjoying a hearty amount of snacks way back in 1070, Roquefort cheese was created in a cave near, as one would expect, Roquefort in France, bet you weren't taught that at school.

Inspector Gadget made another appearance albeit he was charged later by RA for cumming too early, some mutterings amongst other hashers indicated he wasn't the only one with this problem. Our zero heroes for tonight were GPS with 290 runs and Miznomer with 40 runs.

Well we better get on with RA's "little" segment of the night, RA commenced the circle of mirth by charging Miznomer, she really didn't want to be at hash having been collected off the plane by GM who made her cum, and in front of Animule! We could do a whole section on Miznomer, she was our little star tonight, she must have been very thirsty after her flight as everyone thought she needed a down down; GPS charged her for getting undressed in front of Animule, no wonder he was a man of few words tonight! This charge came about after Meladjusted thought he'd charge her with no hash gear, and Troppo charging her with her fail in dressing the GM, both of these discharged with a reversal. Then Mental Disorder joined the mirth and charged Menstrual Disorder with not dressing him like Miznomer does for her husband, he shared with all that he would like a warm dick and a warm arse, and that was all the men needed suddenly the male hashers were all asking if their temperatures could be checked.

Back to our RA, his next charge was on Beau and D Cell, who also have premature ejaculation problems as they also came early and RA arrived to the two of them "inspecting" bushes. Mental Disorder was charged with creating fizzing disorder in the carpark, and Beau was charged with having got his horn back, he was not very horny on the run, Beau in his defence said he was saving himself, On Sec enlightened the circle that's because he was going away with her and D Cell this weekend.

It really isn't me with sex on the mind, the circle was full of smutty innuendos like a good hash should be!!

RA called on confession time, Meladjusted offered up his first, he remarked that it would take more than the jabberjaws to keep Suka quiet, but it did work for a short while. Troppo confessed to avoiding all false trails tonight, unlike the Dutch East India ship Batavia that didn't avoid the Morning Reef of the Houtman Abrolhos on this day in 1629.

Replicar charged Phantom for a bit of a nudge nudge wink wink on the run, well maybe it was just a nudge as she pushed him into some low lying branches, there's more hair on the other side of your head Replicar, would have done less damage if you were running the other way!

Whew we made it through the charges and onto young Made Muffin's birthday who bought a scrumptious apple and pear cake to enjoy after our meal.

General Business

- On Sec checked for numbers for the Palace Run on Tuesday
- Suka reminded hashers that July 2nd is missing a hare, please see her after the circle

Usually at this stage most of the note taking is done, but not on this mirthy night, was it a full moon that brought out a troop of jokers, Made Muffin gave her version of a romantic way to find the remote, Tightarse told the story of his young neighbours search for malteses at the cinema and Meladjusted got part way through his joke and had a brain fart, forgetting the last question that Forrest Gump was asked. Troppo then amused us with some renditions of FG before telling his joke about the farting granny. Inspector Gadget told a wee story about black appendages and the final one told by Mental Disorder about a grateful refugee in Perth.

So much hot air on a cold night, just like 1783 when the first hot air balloon was launched by the Montgolfier brothers.

Onto the dummy shorts, GPS nominated himself as he would look after them better than Beau, GM thought this was a good enough reason to bestow the honour again on GPS.

Buttered Buns lead us in our song of mirth, and we enjoyed a lovely hot soup, thanks Radar and Meladjusted.
