Run: 1580

Date: 15th October 2021

Hare: Rowdy Rabbit

Venue: Mosman Park

Our esteemed RA went missing in action, but he thought he'd send us a taste of summer to make up for it, which was well received by 34 hashers who turned up to the run that Rowdy Rabbit "volunteered" to set. Inspector Gadget still running around in his t-shirt at 10pm, On Sec actually got a sweat up walking. Rowdy Rabbit had us worried, he was making excuses right from the start how his brain tumour affected his memory, well at least he remembered to set the run! We figured, being smart hashers, we would always find our way back to base but the big question on everyone's lips "was Rowdy going to forget where he put the drink stop". But no Rowdy did a brilliant job and we enjoyed a Swan overlooking the Port. Poor Shifty, she thought every check was the drink stop, for which she was duly charged by High Beam, and then when she finally did see the DS on the path she was off, I have never seen Shifty move that fast, shooting past the leaders with an unprecedented burst of speed. Someone was forgetful though, what's your excuse White Pointer, nobody brought chalk to mark off the checks, of which there were a "few", this saw the walkers doing all the checks, albeit we grumbled several of us really enjoyed it.

GM called the circle and Beau was called in, he tried to tell the circle that there were not enough checks, but we know not to take the horny runner seriously, he enjoyed the run, falsies, checks and all the hills. Mouth Organ agreed with Beau when critiquing on behalf of the walkers and found the walk enjoyable.

Tag was welcomed as a LTNS, I think there were a couple of more LTNS that stayed in the shadows, but it was good to see them back.

Oops suddenly it came to the RA section and we'd forgotten to volunteer someone, but no problem to Meladjusted, who has no problem being a late cummer, he stepped in and took on the role with very short notice. First up he honoured the zero heroes, Mountain Hawk 510, Hopping Mad 30 and High Beam 490. Now as we near the silly season, we may need to have some drinking practice as three hashers just weren't able to handle their drink tonight, first one Beau who missed his mouth with his first DD, then Hopping Mad in her eagerness to hop into the circle sent drinks flying, and our Piss Purer, who was misnamed by On Sec, dropped his esky full of drinks as he got them out of the van. Our GM got a few mentions, Hogshit called him up for his bookend runs 171, then White Pointer wanted to enlighten the circle with a bit of history, of how GM had attended his very first Hash run at this very same spot.

Whoreda charged D Cell for some lemon throwing, but somehow it got reversed and suddenly Whoreda and Hopping Mad were linked in a DD. Ballwinkle then charged BellBoy who recently changed his career, he now thinks he's a politician, taking up 4 car spaces when parking his ute.

Confession time saw Replicar step up he'd forgotten his nuts again, he'd left them in the freezer, surely that's painful when they thaw!! Mind you he is a kiwi, he probably walked to school in the middle of winter with bare feet, putting his feet into every cow pat to get them warm. Hope he didn't do that with his nuts!

GM thanked RA for being short, I don't know what's wrong with tall RAs.

A new set of twins tonight stepped forward to celebrate their birthdays with promises of a cake cuming next week, Beau and Hopping Mad.

General business:

- A big thank you to the hashers that stepped in to fill the vacant runs in November, you know who you are, well everyone knows who you are as it will be in the Rag.
- GM, having listened to his Committee, chose to change the AGPU eligibility and clarified that the AGPU was open to all regulars and apologised if his earlier decision upset anyone.
- On Sec is collecting names for the AGPU, if you weren't present at Mosman Park, then please flick me a text 0423729704 and let me know if you are cuming, we have great numbers already.
- A huge thank you to Shifty who suddenly found herself hare at the Xmas run on the 17th December, with Sardar as co-hare and I know we historically have held it at someone's home but I feel confident that no matter where we have it we'll have a ball. Closer to the time I will be asking for help with the food, and thanks to those that have already offered, as we won't be leaving it all up to Shifty. It's going to be held at Piney Lakes, and don't forget your mosquito spray, they bred 'em big there.
- There will be no run on the 24th December, but the run 1st January needs a hare.

Then GM opened the Comedy Club, Cookie had a quick one about a cannibal with expensive tastes, and as GM likes short ones, On Sec also told a short one about Keith the dwarf. In stepped Inspector Gadget, who proved to be quite 'armless, as he told his joke about the chap affected by thalidomide having a pee. Troppo told a limerick and Mountain Hawk finished the funny business off with one about a lady making wishes from a genie.

Now the truth cums out about the dummy shorts, Tight Arse is doing the Cape to Cape in them.

Next week's run-Smallgoods, with Meladjusted as co-hare

Doggy Doo became the leader of the pack and led us howlingly into the FH3 song.
