Run: 1581

Date: 22nd October 2021

Hare: Smallgoods

Venue: Guildford

Unbeknownst to several FH3ers tonight was to be a con. First up it was a consolidation of three clubs, FH3, Rocky City and Harriettes, and even a few Hammersley joined our convention. Mmmmmm 82 fun loving, content hashers makes for much merriment, and it is great to catch up with hashers that we don't get to see often, maybe next time it could be less confined and held in an open space and there would be less constraints on free movement, just a suggestion for consideration.

This week we lost a life member, dedicated hasher, partner, friend; our gorgeous fun loving Rambling has gone to brighten up the hash club in the skies, she is greatly missed by many. Wenchy bravely spoke on behalf of GPS, her and BluHe, who were with Rambling as she peacefully passed away.

It was time to set off, Nice Tits giving us concise instructions on where to go. It wasn't long before the first hasher lost connection with the ground, Hogshit hit the dirt having failed to navigate a root, he dusted himself off and continued on courageously. Next minute another hasher was taken out by a rock, Sybil connected heavily with the ground. Hopping Mad, Puddles and On Sec conveyed her back to base.

As for the rest of the run, well, I'll just have to make it up, hashers took in the sights of the hysterical town of Woodridge/Guildford, albeit I only heard mention of one hysterical building, being the Woodridge Tavern, did they not venture past Stirling House on the side of the Swan, the Guilford Grammar School or the Colonial Jail. As far as I know the run concluded with no further mishaps, and the crew consumed some sustenance at the drink stop before heading back to Smallgood's. One would think the danger was over, but next minute, our stand in GM, Meladjusted, decided he wanted to be centre of attention, and went arse up through the back door having missed the step, he'll be one of three convalescing on Saturday.

The Circle commenced with a fitting tribute to Rambling, Tight Arse led us in Swing Low Sweet Chariot.

Our stand in GM welcomed everyone and called on Sybil for a run report, but as she had only run 500 metres before getting rocked, the report was given to a Rocky hasher who with Two Dogs from Rocky giving the walkers report concurred that the run was awesome. Stand in GM called in our two visitors from Queensland, Nunny and Bush Basher, and also the GMs of Rocky City and the Harriettes.

RA then called on our zero heroes, a special mention of Rambling who decided 22 years ago to form a mixed Hash Club and was instrumental in forming FH3, then Inspector Gadget 30 runs and Rowdy Rabbit who had conkers in his ears and didn't hear that he was also called up for 10 runs.

Then it was onto confessions, confusion and convoluted charges: the stumblers, Meladjusted, Sybil and Hogshit were called in, Hogshit was being consoled by Slugger, so Look Alike stood in for him. Beau charged again for a small one-for cleaning the gutter with his hat, how considerate! Wenchy came up to be exorcised, Sweet Dreams charged Sybil for generously sharing her drink with her and other hashers. Hormone and Raunchy were heard arguing about who had the biggest dick. White Pointer must have had something on his conscience as he walked out in front of a car.

General business:

- A mixed accolade for Smallgoods and Rocky City and the well supported run.
- Cookie asked hashers to look out for the flyer, there is going to be a conjoined picnic at Matilda Bay for a happy catch up of many clubs, around the 27th November.

Inspector Gadget amused the throngs with his rendition of a stuttering Polar bear.

Next week's run-D liva rants with her co-hare, Beau, Halloween costumes to be worn and what better place to meet than opposite the cemetery in Shenton Park.

Stand In GM got the Friday song under way, this was followed by Rocky City pumping out their song. Thank you Smallgoods.
