Run: 1590

Date: 31st December 2021

Hare: Mel Adjusted & Radar

Venue: Thornleigh

The final run of the year and what a year. It was always going to be different and the hares didn't disappoint. The attendees were all in good form as we assembled to hear the hares directives on the runners and walkers guides. The runners numbered five, well leastways that was the number that started off with all good intentions. The rest were quite clearly walking. The trails were clearly marked out and no question that we were going to be back without drama. We had a total of 31 runners and visitors turn out.

GPS was our stand-in GM for the night with D Liva Rants having skedaddled from Perth. The circle was called together in the back yard of the hares and GPS took his place on the GM's throne. Big Bang was brought in to give his verdict on the run and he ended up covering both the runners and walkers thoughts on the run. Especially as it was clear that the number of runners quickly dissipated. He declared that it was a great run, though he seemed pre-occupied that there were few fairy lights out on the run. He didn't declare them as Christmas Lights, but preferred to say that he missed the fairy lights...

LTNS and visitors who joined us for the final run consisted of Miz Nomer; Mental Disorder; Menstrual Disorder (and her midget pooch); Disgraceful; Jam Jar; Dolly; Franger; Nok Nigh; Wet/Sweet Dreams (which one is she?); Arsoleo and Judith who is fast becoming a regular runner, a free beer concoction of less than an eye wash was awarded to all.

Now, before I proceed with the rest of Circle report, Mel Adjusted had to step in and make it clear that despite recent announcements, the drinks history and payments thereof continue to remain out of kilter. In fact, they are getting worse! It's very simple guys and gals, if you continue to take drinks and not pay for them, we will have to look at alternative arrangements. The people who have taken drinks and not paid for them know who you are. Now would be a good time to make a reasonable donation to the drinks tin for missed payments. We are now short by approx. $50. We need to move on and not have to address this again, please... Thank you.

Your RA, White Pointer took over and dished out charges and down downs with gay abandon. Mel Adjusted got nailed for something to do with dummy shorts, though I rather think he just wanted a down down as he didn't have to drive anywhere after the circle. Then Miz Nomer was brought in for the evasion of everything, which sort of left no stone unturned. Big Bang was accused of going off like a little whimper, what's in a name I say. Then White Pointer told us that he had received a letter from that other RA on high, The Pope himself. A carrier pigeon delivered his New Year's honours list which mentioned the Monk of the Year as being Megawatt. Unfortunately, he wasn't there and so guess who was brought in as a stand-in? Yep, Mel Adjusted took another Down-Down, what a man. Does his ability to soak up the amber fluid know no boundaries... Shame that it wasn't real stuff, you know, that 100% non-watered down thing called BEER... There was an attempt to give GPS a down-down, but this back fired as it was overlooked that as the stand-in GM he was impervious to such treatment. Ahah. So the charge was reversed, hehe.

The RA declared Tightarse has been awarded the International Writer of the Year Award from Sweden. The logic in such an award was as ambiguous as was the topic. But this didn't stop Tightarse who revelled in the lime light that he had been thrust in.

Talking of writers, the RA called in Cookie for a DD as The Tall Story teller of the year, Yours truly received the Short Story award and Maid Muffin got the Medium award. And what a splendid line up we all made as we took our awards of the famed DD fluid.

Another DD was awarded to Sir Fumbles as our honoured Hash Flash and for once he was on the receiving end of the little black box that tells no lies as it goes F*L*A*S*H

Under General Business, there was a touching moment as Mental Disorder realised that Rowdy Rabbit was a long lost friend from Puerto Galera in the Philippines who he thought was dead...!!! This was just a rumour and RR quickly dispelled any such rumours. They spent the rest of night catching up on the last 11 years that had been lost.

It was noted that Shadow was being followed by Wenchy's dog who is also called Shadow. There was an obvious connection there somewhere...

Four Jokers helped give everyone a laugh coming from Mountain Hawk; Mental Disorder; Mel Adjusted and Gadget.

There were three Zero Hero's who regrettably got unintentionally overlooked, they will be duly rewarded next week. So for this week, gone but not forgotten!!

We collectively all joined in on the Hash Hymn to bring the circle to a close.

Then it was a glorious spread of food and as it was New Year's Eve, Radar & Mel Adjusted kindly kept their doors open to everyone to stay on and see the New Year in. This included the use of the spa and swimming pool which numerous hashers took full advantage of. I have it on good understanding that the waterproof flash camera was not put in to use. Though this will be born out once Sir Fumbles photos hit the Facebook page shortly...

BREAKING NEWS: The England cricket team has officially beaten the Wuhan street market for the worst use of a bat ever...
