Run: 1594

Date: 28th January 2022

Hare: Buttered Buns

Venue: Applecross

It was back to a semblance of normality, if such a thing exists on the Hash. With the Perth summer marching on with its relentless sun and warmth and not a single hint of anything like rain, no one had any excuses not to be there and 30 fellow Hashers turned out to see what Buttered Buns was going to dish up.

For some inexplicable reason we were a few minutes late in getting the run started and getting Buttered Buns to give us all the low down on her run. The runners were sent off on their way, but the walkers were told to hang back for more detailed run (walk) directions. It quickly became clear that this was going to be an easy walk and we were told that a Drink Stop would be provided but that we shouldn't be too quick or we might get there before the hare... She wasn't wrong and we almost missed the Drink Stop, which was well stocked in both liquid refreshments and nibbles. We were being spoiled with champagne and orange plus cheese and biscuits. Then the runners raced in to get their share when suddenly Mountain Hawk looked around and realised that her hubby (one Tight Arse) was missing with no other runners on the horizon. She was asking all the runners where was her hubby and seemed most perturbed. So I asked her, who has the car keys? I do she replied. To which I replied, then no problem...

It was a quick finish and back to Buttered Buns headquarters to get the circle started. Cookie was asked by the GM to let us know what she thought of the walk to which her comments were equally short when she declared it to be the Shortest Walk ever, but with a great Drink Stop. A 9.5 rating was given. On behalf of the Runners was Wise Crack who said that it was a fantastic run. She got to see the river, which seemed for her to be a highlight. But no points awarded which I am not sure was a good thing or a bad thing. Lets say it was a good thing...

Our GM quickly down to serious business in reporting that our Religious Adviser (White Pointer) had had a near death experience last week when he suffered a heart attack!! Thankfully the paramedics and hospital staff pulled him through and after a stent was inserted, he was declared okay and will hopefully soon be back with us. So I hope that you are reading this White Pointer and we all send you our very best wishes for a full and speedy recovery and we are looking forward to seeing you back with us soon. I might add that he was apparently more concerned with his facial injuries as he had literally face planted as he fell to the ground face first. Its rumoured that there might be improvements... On On mate, see you soon.

D Liva Rants called in Soixante Muff as a LTNS to join us for a Down Down and then introduced our stand-in RA for the night, one GPS. He was in good spirits and declared that he was fully capable of doing that thing that usually only the female persuasion are capable of, you know men, that thing called multi-tasking. He was drinking, talking, walking and dishing out Down Downs with gay abandon, clearly enjoying his role.

First in for a DD were the cricket fans, Sybil, Tight Arse & Megawatt. Why? Who cares, any excuse for a DD is a good one and I'm not a big follower of cricket, so let them drink.

Next GPS called in Cookie for poor parking. But this quickly rebounded badly when she declared that she wasn't driving and that it was Sir Fumbles who was behind the wheel... Not to be deterred, GPS switched who should take the drink and fair enough. Which gave someone else (Cookie?) chance to take the Hash Flashes photo turning the tables on he who is usually behind the camera.

BTW Do you all get to see the Hash Flashes handiwork as posted on Facebook? Sir Fumbles does a great job of getting all photos quickly uploaded (Saturday morning) and you are welcome to both view and comment accordingly to the many candid shots.

Megawatt was then called in for another DD for having a small horn. Was this really a GPS thing or was Sybil behind this?? All I know is that Mel Adjusted got involved and a choir consisting of Maid Muffin; Cookie & Slugger. Things were happening faster than my little fingers and pen could scribble. Gonna have to find a better way of recording everything you lot get up to in the circle...

Rowdy Rabbit was called into the circle to explain what he got up to last Friday when a certain folding aluminium chair was destruction tested to the maximum when he did a double back flip with inverted pike into it. It was something to see I can tell you. If the Olympic Diving selection committee had been there, he would've been signed up right then and there. He rightfully took The Fifth and denied all knowledge of what took place after his first drink. I personally think that someone slipped him a Mickey (Mouse)...

Our GM retook the circle and told us all about the sex life of the dragon fly. Now, is it just me, or have we been told this before? I'm going to risk a DD and ask the rest of JH3 to confirm whether or not I'm losing my marbles or is the GM losing hers? Have your say at the next circle, have you heard the dragon fly sex story before or not???

GPS took the idea of sex and quickly brought in four of our female hashers for a DD for having their own little private circle in the outer circle. On In Mountain Hawk; Sybil; High Beam & Slugger. No one thought to ask what were they discussing and whether they were scheming up any clever ideas to entertain us all. Next week...

There were no visitors and the only birthday was Buttered Buns who celebrated with the rest of Australia on the 26th. What a great day to have your birthday.

The Dummy Shorts were brought in complete with their wearer, one GPS. Nominations were requested and the only culprit was Hogshit and his arse about face, facemask. It was an easy vote and unanimous cheer for Hogshit. There were questions about GPS had been doing in the shorts, but we all know that what happens in the shorts, stays in the shorts. Though I'm sure it will all come out in the wash...

That just left us with the evenings jokers. Yours truly was quickly in first followed by Mountain Hawk; Troppo and Cookie. My vote went to Troppo who told us about his father who was a magician whose favourite trick was sawing people in half. When asked if he had any siblings, he said that he has two half-brothers and one half-sister... bum bum...

At that we closed the circle with the Hash Hymn led this week by Sybil.

See you all next week at Sluggers, details below

Footnote: During the meal I couldn't help but overhear part of a conversation between GPS and Hogshit about the Dummy Shorts. Watch this space, but more importantly watch the Dummy Shorts... On On

NEXT WEEKS RUN 1595 4th February Slugger : 56 Glenorchy Cre., Hamersley

Under Other Business.

It was announced in the circle that in line with your state governments new Covid guidelines, when attending indoor venues such as restaurants and halls, all attendees will require to be double vaccinated, and evidence of such vaccination will be needed. We can do this one of two ways.

- 1) You can send me a copy of your vaccination certificate by email to FridayH3@gmail.com stating your Hash name and mobile phone number that I will keep on a secure thumb drive, or
- 2) You can bring your copy vaccination certificate to the Hash and show this to Radar who will keep a register that she has sighted your certificate. If you do neither, you maybe prevented from entering such establishments as the occasions happen. The upcoming 1600th Run is a prime example where we will be hiring a hall for the meal after the run.

In light of the above, your committee also needs to update and maintain a current list of all members with birth names, Hash names, current mobile phone numbers and email addresses. Please ensure that this is provided to Radar or myself, Thank You,

It was agreed that the Hash Cash Financial Report of the last three years finances would be available on request, see myself the On Sec if you would like a copy. Only $50 per copy....

The Perth Hash House Harriettes have announced that they will be holding a BLUE DRESS RUN on the 8th March at Wireless Hill starting at 7pm.

Your committee is looking to put together an FH3 weekend away at the end of May. More details to follow shortly, Watch this space.

A Hare is still needed for the first week of March on the 4th. Please step forward and contact High Beam with your booking to quickly fill this gap, Thank You.

Friday Hash House Harriers Run #1600 will be on the 11th March and theme will be COLOUR. So get your thinking caps on for what your colours will be. OR we may follow the Indian Festival of Colour known as Holi where everyone wears white and then coloured powder and water is thrown over everyone. It's also known as the Festival of Love and we all know that Hashers love each other, right??

Quote of the Week: I took the bed out of the bedroom and replaced it with a trampoline. My wife hit the roof....

Disclaimer – Being innocent is no excuse. Never let the truth get in the way of a good story, even if it was a lie to begin with. All complaints should be sent on a post card to my ex-wife, she is really good at telling you where to go and what to do when you get there in three different languages... Oh Happy Days... All mistakes are intentional and I'm not guilty and I don't care!
