Run: 1602

Hare: High Beam

Date: 25th March 2022

Venue: Shenton Park

I'm back on the job. Did you miss me?? Okay, don't answer that question. Thank you to Buttered Buns for taking notes the previous week and any errors were mine, but then again please refer to my disclaimer at the bottom to each Rag Sheet.

This week's run came to you courtesy of High Beam and the suburb of Shenton Park where we recorded 32 runners in attendance. Right from the get-go our RA was on the spot to ensure that the run and circle stayed dry. White Pointer was confident that he had things under control even if the looming dark skies suggested otherwise. I wasn't feeling quite so positive and so I took my new lightweight rain jacket and broly with me and was fully prepared for anything short of an east coast flood disaster. Whether it was my being fully prepared or the incantations of our RA, the rain held off.

Beau had pulled his horn out declaring that it looked like he might've bent it and that it might not work. I suggested he give it a good blow and see. Thankfully he was referring to his Hash Horn and not his other horn, all was well and the children could come out of hiding.

D Liva Rants turned up (as she does) and soon had us on our way with HB sending the runners one way and the walkers the other.

We were on our way and it wasn't long before High Beam had us looking high and low for the trail with various check backs and false trails. My kind of hashing as I yelled Check Faster. Needless to say there were a few suggestions as to what I should be doing, but in case young children are reading this I won't go into detail. It wasn't too long until we were all at the drink stop where there was a wonderful assortment of liquid refreshments and nibbles. Then we were soon back at the hash site and our cars.

The GM soon had us forming a circle, well she tried to but there were a number of other people whose hearing aids had been turned off and took some berating to get themselves sorted and into the circle.

Pickled Piker gave us his walkers report but being a man of few words was happy with Good Walk. Beau delivered the runners report saying that they were good trails though he was caught out by the numerous speed humps though he did like the ladies at the Drink Stop...

LTNS this week was headed by Organ. Then there was a Molly Duker who brought in a number of Hammersley Hashers for a DD. Visitors was a solitary Michelle who came with Roxy and she single handed brought down our average age by an enormous margin. Hope to see you again soon.

D Liva Rants then called in the RA to let us know what he had arranged with the weather Gods. White Pointer explained that he had a chat with the Big Man upstairs that morning and had come to an agreement that we would be okay. There were of course some doubting Thomases with GPS being called in as the Brolly King along with a number of others (myself included) who were of little faith and were seen out on the trail carrying anti-rain dispersant devices. So for our troubles we got wetted down on the inside.

Charges were flying fast and furious with Animule being brought in for getting lost on the Wanneroo Hash which is a daytime affair. I think we're going to have to get him chipped so whether he remembers his phone or not, we always know where he is. Hogshit was concerned that St. David's Day at the start of March had been forgotten and overlooked. I was looking around the circle for anyone wearing rubber welly boots which is always a dead giveaway for Welsh farmers and nervous sheep. I've heard that the best place to screw a sheep is on the edge of a cliff. They apparently push back harder... Ask any Kiwi...

Talking of Hogshit, he apparently did the whole run leaving his Mini Countryman rear doors wide open!! He said that he was proving what a safe suburb we were in as nothing had gone missing! What he didn't know until he got home was that the locals mistook his Mini for an oversized wheelie bin and had added things to the back of his car... GPS was concerned about Buttered Buns height and being tripped over and something about only needing two beers. High Beam said she was so drunk she couldn't remember her first Down Down. Buttered Buns did some charging of her own calling in Sir Fumbles with something about a false trail and beer spillage. Replicar called in Beau for having a cognitive disorder (is there a doctor in the house?).

I'm really going to have to learn a different sort of shorthand so that my notes make more sense two days later...

Zero Hero's – Just White Pointer with a score of 410 runs

Birthdays - None that made any sense

Jokers consisted of Troppo who is going to have to fire his script writer. Wenchy who got grapped. Cookie told us of a late husband and Tightarse whose postman died.

Dummy Shorts saw only two candidates this week. Hogshit and the story of his car doors being left open and Animule for you know what. And the winner was Hogshit. Sorry Animule, you're gonna have to do better than getting lost...

NEXT WEEKS Run 1603 1st April Animule – Jackadder Lake Res, Woodlands.
Cnr Rosewood Ave & Jackadder Way

Our Hash Hymn and closing song was led by Slugger

Under Other Business.

Lost and Found: Maladjusted reckons the award of the year goes to Animule

Trailmaster High Beam is on the hunt for a volunteer to Hare for the 22 April. Then the month of May onwards is totally open. You know who she is and how to reach her. Don't be shy and do please step forward.

Empty beer bottles and tinnies have a new home. It's called the Big Green Bag. Look for it at the end of the circle each week. It's hard and the money goes to a good cause – US!!!

I'm asked to remind everyone about the forthcoming Poor Mans InterHash Weekend at Cervantes on April 22-25. See attached flyer.

Disclaimer – Being innocent is no excuse. Never let the truth get in the way of a good story, even if it was a lie to begin with. All complaints should be sent on a post card to my ex-wife, she is really good at telling you where to go and what to do when you get there in three different languages... Oh Happy Days...
