Run: 1607

Hare: Radar & Meladjusted

Date: 6th May 2022

Venue: Huntingdale

I'm back. Did you miss me? Don't answer that question. Yes, I survived my trip to Adelaide and back, though the WA government did throw me a curve ball when towards my last week there I received an email telling me that my G2G pass was being cancelled... Thankfully I read on to understand that it was not needed. WA has finally fully opened all its borders and we are free to come and go, if you can afford the fares...

Thank you to Tigtarse for stepping in for me over the last two weeks and keeping you all informed and entertained with his meanderings. You did realise that it wasn't me, didn't you??

Okay, on with the show and this week, we had 35 Friday Hashers turn out to attend this weeks run from Radar and her able sidekick, Meladjusted. I arrived just in time to see Meladjusted park the beer wagon, so I was feeling pretty confident that I was at the right place. It was already getting dark at 6pm and this reminds me to remind you all that you really do need to bring your flash lights complete with fully charged batteries. Unbelievable that two Hashers showed up asking the hares if they had a spare torch. To those of you who are smarter than the average bear, yes, this will be the case every week here on in for the next six months. It's getting colder and darker as we get closer to winter. SO BRING YOUR BLOODY TORCHES with you every week!!!

Back from the run our stand-in GM (GPS) called the circle together to get proceedings underway. First in was High Beam to give us all a Walkers perspective of the run. She declared that it was very dark (well there were few streetlights) but good company. Then Roxby reported on behalf of the Runners saying that it would've been good in daylight but that the plant life was an issue. This was highlighted when I saw Tightarse sporting scratches on his face from a low branch. His own fault for being tall and not having a more powerful torch with broader beam. More reminders to not only bring a torch, but to get one suitable for the job. Hashing was never meant to be easy. Ask anyone with a broken leg...

Visitors & LTNS. Gadget & D Cell stepped in as returner's claiming their free beers and we had a visitor from Melbourne, Wild Rider who had found her own way there and then later in the evening disappeared. A very resourceful lady from the other side of the continent.

Our stand-in GM called in the RA and noted that White Pointer was not in his usual attire with White Pointer being one of the late arrivals and using his tardiness as an excuse for not being appropriately dressed. He was lucky to get away with his weak excuse. GPS must've been in a good mood. This led to the late arrivals being given a Down Down, on in White Pointer and Sardar. This was followed by the RA giving Troppo a DD as an accolade for lighting up the trail.

Then the Charges started flying fast and furious. Meladjusted called in Troppo and White Pointer for arriving without torches and begging for some light assistance. Have you all got the message yet re torches and lights??? And it looks like White Pointer has broken the Guinness Book of Records for getting his name mentioned so many times in this week's rag... Gadget called in Tightarse to thank him for his stand-in scribe duties. Megawatt called in Mountain Hawk over a connection with Singapore and a smelly drain (you work it out...). Wenchy called in Bell Boy and a suggestion about getting into the bushes... Tightarse called in Beau and his failed pacemaker lighting system (what, another light issue!). Apparently, Beau was having a problem getting it turned on. Which means that the expression, whatever turns you on, can't be applied here... groan, groan, yes, I know LOL. Mountain Hawk called in Big Bang for not being able to find the RA. Big Bang then called in Hopping Mad for actually running! Then our stand-in GM called in Buttered Buns, Whoreda & Miz Nomer for not taking notice, which probably means talking in the circle. Here's where I'll probably get into trouble for getting something wrong when I wrote down something about Miz Nomer calling in GPS saying that if he was 20 years younger he just might get chatted up... (was I close or will I get it in the neck? You tell me,,).)

Zero Hero's as – Just the one with Meladjusted coming in for a free beer for having completed 440 runs. Though there was some contentious issue over Roxby wearing a Hammersley H3 shirt...!!!

Birthdays - None to report

Jokers – We were entertained by Cookie; Troppo & Gadget. Where we would be without these three regular contributors?? Another don't answer that question LOL...

Dummy Shorts – Miz Nomer was happy to pull them off and pass them on. The following new potential recipients were nominated, Meladjusted for the shit smelling location; Bag Lady for getting easily confused by the previous week's rags over where the run site was for tonight and Ballwrinkle who was nominated by his better half for driving off with his mobile phone sitting on the cars roof! Incredibly it was still there when they realised and stopped the car to take a look. The verbal voting saw the weeks award go to Ballwrinkle. I would have awarded the shorts to him just for being a safe and boring driver... Get the peddle to metal Ballwrinkle and have fun.

The circle was closed with the Hash Hymn being led by Sir Fumbles

The evenings meal was courtesy of the hare and a Dominos outlet just a hundred metres up the road. Thanks for the pizzas guys, of which there were none left. So clearly everyone enjoyed their Italian triangle or three. Thank you Radar.

NEXT WEEKS Run 1608 13th May Shadow & Bell Boy. 53 Hamilton St, Stirling
(Parking at the Child Care Centre across the Road OR on the vacant lots BUT NOT on the neighbours side at 53a...)

(BAG LADY, are you reading this??)

Under Other Business.

Thank you everyone who provided their valuable input re the question of Hash Fee's. Our GM, D Liva Rants has reviewed everything and will shortly make an announcement after having discussed all aspects with the committee. There will be a small change effective as from Run #1615 1st July at the start of the next financial new year. Watch this space.

The GM D Liva Rants has announced that the FH3 Weekend Away will be on the 23-24th July. More details to be announced in the near future, so for now please ink this into your diaries to attend and join in for a great Hash Getaway. Have you reserved your places yet? Bookings are still open...

Empty beer bottles and tinnies have a new home. It's called the Big Green Bag. Look for it at the end of the circle each week. It's not hard and the money goes to a good cause – US!!!

To those of you who are on Facebook, do please look up Friday Hash and tick LIKE so that you will get the weekly spread of Hash Photo's from Sir Fumbles where you can again tick like and add your comments to the photos. PLUS you'll get a weekly reminder of where the coming run is taking place (thanks to D Cell). Or you can go to the FH3 website as listed at the top of the page.

Quote of the Week: Once a Hasher, always a Hasher. Only the circles change

Disclaimer – Being innocent is no excuse. Never let the truth get in the way of a good story, even if it was a lie to begin with. All complaints should be sent on a post card to my ex-wife, she is really good at telling you where to go and what to do when you get there in three different languages... Oh Happy Days... All mistakes are intentional and I’m not guilty and I don’t care!
