Run: 1608

Hare: Shadow & Bell Boy

Date: 13th May 2022

Venue: Stirling

Winter has finally started to make itself known as the temperature dropped and rain threatened to show its ugly head. But I am pleased to say that 24 Hashers were not put off and your RA did a wonderful job of holding the rain showers at bay. So with an extra layer of clothing, we turned up ready to party, er run/walk.

As usual, our GM called The Hash together at 7pm so that the Hare (Shadow) could address us all and provide us with the evenings run directions. She explained that there was only one short run for the Walkers and that the Runners would have to do the run twice to qualify as true FH3 Runners. The question was asked Is There a Drink Stop? Sure replied Shadow. And so off we went.

As I have a damaged heel, I stayed back and helped Shadow get things ready for the Drink Stop. Yes there was a Drink Stop, right there at the run site. Shadow was looking at her watch as over 40 minutes had passed by and no runners of any kind had turned up. With a sly smile Shadow admitted that she had put together a longish run with crafty checks and trails. As the Runners arrived back, they started to complain that there wasn't a Drink Stop to realise that it was waiting there for them at Shadows place. Shadow asked them if they were going to head out for their 2nd round so as to be real runners!! They declined preferring to enjoy the provided drinks. Then the Walkers started to meander in some almost having spent an hour out on the trail. Well done Shadow.

It was only as The Circle was about to form that a brief shower hit but by which time pretty much everyone was under the rear garden awning. The GM was back from her travels of last week and D Liva Rants brought the circle to order. But before asking the Runners and Walkers for their thoughts on the run, she decided to mix things up a bit and charge a few Hashers. On In White Pointer who was actually given an accolade and in doing so awarded herself a Down Down and Slugger was invited to join in on the DD.

Megawatt was asked for his assessment of the run. He declared that it was a black run, a very black run with long and short stretches. A good layout, a great run scoring 9.98. Not bad and thankfully everyone had remembered to bring their own torches and spotlights. So please remember here on in, not to forget to bring your own headlights...

For the Walkers, Dynamo thought that it was a good run that she enjoyed. Then Wenchy declared that it was a little bit funny with curvy arrows (courtesy of another Hash...). All in all, the run was declared a winner.

We had no visitors and this weeks LTNS were made up of our very GM D Liva Rants; Hogshit & Slugger. Welcome back folks and a DD for all.

The RA White Pointer took over the circle charging Shadow over displaying her pussy, you know, the feline kind, that was shut up in the study and left to look out of the window. Slugger was charged with wanting to see the Pussy. Then there was a question of whose run was it? Shadows or Bell Boys? Both had a hand in it, but it was clearly Shadows.

Then as the Down Downs were being dished out by GPS, as this week's piss pourer, it was noted that there was some blood on the cups. Turned out that GPS had a small cut on his finger, though there were other claims... The finger was bandaged, the cups cleaned and we quickly got things back under control. Two Down Downs followed, Hogshit for having visions of greatness and imitating the RA and Hopping Mad for having a rather large ship cruising along our coast line...

This week's Zero Heroes were Megawatt (460); High Beam (620) and Wenchy (680). Congrats all.

The weeks Jokers were Cookie telling us about a Mother-in-law and Gadget explaining why the Irishman jumped.

Dummy Shorts – Ballwrinkle arrived at tonight's run wearing his Dummy Shirts with four new potential recipients nominated. Hogshit and Cookie for both losing their wallets/purses; Megawatt over his flashlight and Bell Boy for having done something only once... The overwhelming decision went to Bell Boy and so it was. A new wearer jumped into his Dummy Shorts.

The circle was closed with the Hash Hymn being led by Troppo who gave it the Allegro treatment

The evenings meal came to us care of one of our very own chef de mission, Cookie who provided us with Roast Beef and assorted trimmings created by Shadow and all served up on a variety of bread rolls followed by banana bread with icing. Thank you, ladies.
