Run: 1609

Hare: Doggy Doo

Date: 20th May 2022

Venue: Winthrop

The evenings weather forecast was good and an easy location to get to. I would've thought that we might get more Hashers out, but we repeated last week's numbers with 24 Hashers coming out to play around the Piney Lakes Reserve and the lake therein.

Doggy Doo told the circle that there was only the one run for both Walkers and Runners with a Drink Stop provided for all. The run was all on chalk and we were started off by being sent out between the Men's & Ladies toilet block. Was this a sign that it could be a shit of a run? Have to wait and see, read on.

Doggy Doo clearly knew how to keep the front Runners linked together with the Walkers by sending them down lots of Check Backs. There was a lot of calling and Beau was out there blowing his horn... Now, I have to put my hand up and acknowledge that D Liva Rants and I were tail end Charlies at the back of the pack and we were starting to struggle. My heel injury was starting to play up and our GM wasn't feeling that she was back to her usual self. So I suggested that we become SCB's (as a long time runner on Jakarta Hash, I was a fully paid up member of the Short Cutting Bastards group). As the pack left the park for the first of the roads, we swung off to the right staying in the park reckoning we could easily short cut back to the run site by staying in the park. WRONG!!! We were soon alongside Murdoch Drive and our hoped-for short cut was quickly becoming a long cut...

Needless to say, we missed the drink stop and arrived back whilst a few concerned Hashers were wondering if they'd need to do an action replay of searching for Animule and calling out the dogs. Most concerned was Rowdy Rabbit as I had his backpack locked up in my car and I was his lift home. Fear not young man, it would take more than a walk in the park to lose me and I had the ever vigilant GM with me.

With the GM safely back and after everyone had enjoyed some snacks, the circle was called to order. We were in an excellent spot with a well-covered area complete with tables, benches, and a BBQ hotplate, not to mention being very well lit. Plus the aforementioned toilet block was close at hand. Sheep Shunter was asked to give us his thoughts on the run as a walker and he thought that it was easy in that all he had to do was follow the On On calls. Replicar thought that it was a pretty good run with excellent use of the area. The usual Down Downs followed as the GM started to dish out some other early Down Downs.

First in was Hogshit for dishing out some false info. What, where or why is irrelevant. It was false and his punishment was you know what. GM then reported that all known Covid sufferers were doing well and would soon be back in action, thank goodness. It was then noted that D Cell & Beau had left early with some excuse or other of having to catch a plane...

The GM then called in the RA for a DD as White Pointer was a late arrival missing the run completely, though he did bring all his usual RA gear with him, so he was appropriately dressed even if he was late. He then took over control of the circle bringing people for Down Downs. First in was Light My Fire and Sheep Shunter for election concerns. High Beam earned a DD for being German thus avoiding the need to go out and vote. Then it was on in for Slugger and Hogshit for having orgies in their street and not inviting everyone else. Really!!! Next in was Whoreda for taking what turned out to be a very expensive taxi ride ($120) which was partly becuz the taxi had to be cleaned of any possible covid strains.

Talking of Covid strains, the following were brought in as Masked Bandits who were rightly taking all precautions so as not to get infected. And we all know that a good mouthful of Hash DD kills all mouth germs, on in, High Beam; Cookie; Hogshit; Sardar; and Cowpat.

Open charges from the floor were next with Whoreda calling in White Pointer and our GM for wearing her regalia inside out, which she acknowledged and graciously accepted the DD. GPS then called in Gadget for Short Cutting and the GM placed him on the Naughty Mat. Talk about ganging up... The last charge was brought by the GM against Slugger and Hogshit for being noisy in the circle. There were others who should've been hit with the same charge for constantly talking amongst themselves in the outer circle. One Day, One Day...

This week's Zero Hero was Light My Fire with 200 runs. Well done young lady and I promise to have your FH3 Drinking Mug presented to you next week, Promise.

The weeks Jokers were Gadget & Troppo who did their thing to entertain the troops.

Dummy Shorts – Bell Boy was nailed for failing to wear the Dummy Shorts on the run. As there were no other worthy recipients, it was voted that he keep them so that next week he can remember to wear them on the run.

The circle was closed with the Hash Hymn being led by Phantom

The evenings meal was two large pans containing lovely Pumpkin & Vegetable soups, plus there was a table full of bread for dunkin' in the soup.
