Run: 1621

Hare: Troppo

Date: 12th August 2022

Venue: Greenwood

And another dry Friday Hash Run despite a week full of showers. Our RA White Pointer certainly leads an enchanted life as he helps the Gods above keep their wraith at bay leaving us be. The only question now is, have I tempted fete? Can our RA produce another dry Friday for GPS? Come out of your cosy homes and find out as another week tempts us.

This was to be the Birthday Run with four Hashers celebrating their birthdays that all fall within days of each other. But the night was owned by Troppo who hared the run and set up the Drink Stop with nothing less than champagne and orange for the 29 Hashers who joined us all for a good evening's entertainment. D Liva Rants has bugged off on annual leave and we all know that whilst the cats away, the mice will play... The roll of GM was looked after by GPS who quickly came to grips with the erstwhile gathering to get them off and running (or walking) as the big hand hit 12 and the little hand pointed at 7. Well it was close enough to that and sort of reminded me of a clock that I bought my sister many years ago, it only had one hand, the hour hand and as you looked around the clock face, it said one-ish; two-ish, three-ish etc...

There was a Runners run and a Walkers walk and although I started out as a tail end Charlie with Meladjusted and Radar on the Walk, we soon caught everyone up as Troppo had everyone fooled with Check Backs and Check Arouds. We soon settled down to steady trails and good markings that took us to aforementioned Drink Stop with the special treat of champers. It wasn't long before we were all back at the run site with well lit facilities that included that special amenity that means no one had to water the plants. GPS quickly got things underway as he got the circle formed and

GPS attempted to get some degree of hush as we started to get things underway. GPS & Wenchy gave the run reports which were both complimentary for a good run that was well set and marked. Good one Troppo especially as he invited the other Birthday celebrities to join him in a Hash Birthday song. On in Replicar; Slugger & Sir Fumbles.

Visitors & LTNS – There was a shit load of LTNS and a few Visitors (Janelle & Always Wet). The MIA's (missing in action for those not versed in military acronyms) consisted of Hardcase; Dynamo; Mental Disorder; Arsesoleo & HopPing Mad. Welcome back to all and looking forward to seeing you all next week.

Our stand-in GM quickly handed over the circle to the RA and called for any Charges. But before anyone could speak White Pointer set about a long list of errant hashers who he had earmarked for a Down Down. First in was the visitor Always Wet for talking in the circle, though she wasn't the only one, but suffice to say that the others got the message. Mental Disorder was brought in for having been banned from FaceBook (again) for saying naughty things about some president or other. But it couldn't have been too serious as he was only banned for seven days though he might need to look outside his door for FBI agents late at night... Cookie and Meladjusted told of a canoe that was overloaded with crabs and the canoe got swamped. What kind of crabs I'll leave you to decide on. Next in was Light My Fire for being too loud at the start of the circle and her other half Sheep Shunter and something about being horny as the previous nights Full Moon got them feeling that way inclined. High Beam was next for getting undressed during the run as she lost her scarf and somehow Radar got involved. More Down Downs were dispensed as Rowdy Rabbit was dispensing beer like it was going out of style.

Zero Hero's – Inspector Gadget (yes, me...) clocked up 50 runs and Sheep Shunter has done 220. Well done me and you!!

Birthdays – As previously mentioned, the nights hare Troppo took out first prize with three cohorts being close hits.

The weeks Jokers were Meladjusted; Wenchy & Troppo. It was another case of you had to be there as the humour was flying around and once again the church took several hits. Everyone is fair game at the Hash.

Dummy Shorts – Inspector Gadget remembered to run in his newly acquired Hash apparel and as the call went out in the circle for new recipients to get handed the Dummy Shorts, they were retained by Gadget for having mixed up the names of Mental Disorders wife and their dog Mini Disorder. But be prepared for a reverse charge next week Mental Disorder for not using proper Hash names whilst at the Hash (note Menstral Disorder and Rowdy Rabbit...). Revenge will be mine says the On Sec, Hahaha...

NEXT WEEKS Run 1622      19th August      GPS – 15 Conigrave Place, Canning Vale

The circle was closed with the Hash Hymn being led by Wenchy

The evening meal was a lovely bowl of pumpkin soup with bread fingers followed by two different servings of cake as a celebration of the birthdays
