Run: 1635

Hare: Wenchy

Date: 18th November 2022

Venue: Morley

Friday started out as a bitch of a day, cold wet and windy. The forecast wasn't looking good for the evening. That combined with a batch of Hashers heading south to Bunbury for the No Goa with the Bunbury H3, meant we had low numbers in attendance, all 16 of us. I commented sweet sixteen and never been kissed, Hash Cash said that she didn't know about that...

At seven o'clock as our GM D Liva Rants called circle up to receive run directions from the Hare, Wenchy. The rain was holding off as we got started. We were told that there were two trails but no Drink Stop. The Check Arounds were good but I didn't see the R chalk marks, but as usual I was a tail end Charlie. The rain continued to hold off for which we were all grateful. Well before 8 o'clock we were back at Wenchy's where we were glad to see an outdoor gas heater fired up and the doors open to a warm house.

D Liva Rants wasted no time in calling Circle Up, which given how many of us were there, didn't take too long. First order of business was a run report from Tightarse for the Walkers. He was quickly swayed by a promise of a great feed and he replied with a score of 10/10! Then Dynamo responded on behalf of the Runners with a few words saying it was a good run.

Visitors and LTNS's was limited to one LTNS – Steamer. Come on back soon mate.

D Liva Rants was pleased to report that she had heard from White Pointer and that he was doing well over east and was expecting to be back in Perth and back with the FH3 by early December. In the meantime, our stand-in RA, Megawatt was back on the job. First in for a Down Down was Mountain Hawk, who had been heard commentating on the weather saying Rain, wot Rain...? Next in was Steamer who had been concerned by the outside church lights turning themselves off as he walked past. Was it a message from the Big Man upstairs? Don't know, but he was awarded a Down Down by the big man downstairs. Next was Dynamo for almost causing a near accident as she started to strip off at some traffic lights. Way to go Dynamo... Sybil was next for distributing fishy biscuits leaving all takers smelling, well, you know, fishy... A call was made to ask for any charges and the only offer was by Tightarse calling in the On Sec for using multiple languages in an attempt to usurp the powers of the GM. A Down Down soon sorted him out.

Zero Hero's – The Dynamic Duo of Hardcase and Dynamo had recorded 30 runs each, well where one goes the other one goes and a DD was the just reward with Hardcase accepting his beer and Dynamo using her own bottle and there was a question of what is she drinking? That water looks very much like a nice G & T... May need further investigations...

Birthdays – None tonight

The weeks Jokers were Mountain Hawk, Wenchy and Meladjusted. Thank you jokers for the humour.

The Dummy Shorts were with Meladjusted who had remembered to wear them for the run. A request was made for suggested recipients. They consisted of Dynamo, Sybil and Gadget. Inspector Gadget was the easy winner because this would be the last chance to nail him for 12 months! And so it was, the Dummy Shorts were duly handed over with Meladjusted helping him into them.

The Circle was closed by Radar leading us all in the FH3 Hash Hymn.

The Meal for the night was Italian Spag Bol with a vegetarian option for those so inclined. Thank you Wenchy for a wonderful feed that had numerous Hashers going back for seconds, including myself.

Disclaimer – Being innocent is no excuse. Never let the truth get in the way of a good story, even if it was a lie to begin with. All complaints should be sent on a post card to my ex-wife, she is really good at telling you where to go and what to do when you get there in three different languages... Oh Happy Days...
