RUN: 1652-

Date: 24th March 2023

Hare: Cowpat

Venue: Padbury

32 Hashers were given little instructions from tonight's Hare Cowpat. We were told F off and find what little remained of the farrows. It had rained and virtually washed them all away. The hare didn't care so neither did we so off we went in search of something namely our way back to Cowpats. Franger was seen looping around and around as he had lost the runners and couldn't find trail. We know he is loopy and tonight he proved it. Kudos to him he got a lot of steps in. A few bedraggled hashers followed Ballwrinkle who always thinks he knows where he is going but invariably doesn't. They came straggling home about 8:15.

Lucky for us Cowpat did care about the meal and served up a lovely curry.

Runners Report

Franger reported for the runners, he said he ran around and around (like a record baby round round round) that's a great song for those that don't recognise it! Anyway, poor Franger's head was spinning by the time he got back.

Walkers Report

Mel Adjusted reported for the walkers he said he had been here there and everywhere, man. Everyone agreed a great run.

Visitors and LTNS

No visitors tonight we had Yo Adrian, Lofty and Franger LTNS.

Charges

Our RA was back tonight a bit rusty though as he hadn't managed to keep the rain off whilst the hare set the run. As usual he had plenty of charges up his sleeve.

RA charged Foxy the dog for been a dog. Cowpat was charged with offensive language when telling us all to F off and for not caring! Sheep Shunter was also in that charge not sure what he did or didn't do.

Franger was charged with treating the dummy shorts poorly he brought them back inside out and scrunched up. That's probably why he didn't wear them on the run.

Ballwrinkle was charged with leading several hashers up the garden path.

Dynamo charged with freaking out over a daddy long legs, although some hashers called out it wasn't long enough to be daddy. Can't imagine what they were referring to.

The RA apologised to Never Hard for all the German jokes.

The GM charged Slugger, HopPingMad, and Gill for continuously nattering and yapping in the circle.

Replicar charged the RA for his failure to halt the rain or part the seas.

Radar charged Clock Work Orange and Franger for not wearing hash gear.

Accolades

The RA gave Hogshit an accolade for having two tiny pieces of chalk and using them to mark off the trail and yet still coming back with two tiny pieces of chalk.

ZERO HEROES

Slugger had 580 and Yo Adrian had a bookend with 121.

Birthdays

None which seems odd, but times are tough. I think no one wants to bake a cake.

Jokers

Tonight's jokers were Troppo, D Liva Rants and Mel Adjusted.

Troppo told 3 jokes one about dried grapes and raising awareness. One about trash talk and one about bad luck.

D Liva Rants had us all in stitches with her joke about Viagra and an elderly gent who shall remain nameless cutting his into quarters. A quarter of a tab giving just the right amount of lead in his pencil to stop him pissing on his shoes.

Mel Adjusted told one about a 20year old buying condoms for what he thought was to be a big night. Only to find when he met his dates father that he was the pharmacist he bought them off.

Dummy Shorts

Hopping mad finally got her hands on the dummy shorts. Although when she saw the state of them, she was very reluctant to handle them, never mind put them on.

Under other Business

Friendly reminder that 2 car bays are to be made available for the two vehicles now bringing the splash.

We said farewell to the lovely Gill who is now on her way back to Wales.

We also farewelled Never Hard, however our intel was wrong. He was insistent he doesn't want to go and will be around for another week.

A reminder that there is a barbeque available for use at hash. Troppo has it, if anyone wants to use it advise Troppo in advance and he will bring it along with gas bottle ready for use.
