RUN: 1701
Hare: Animule

Date: 15/03 / 2024
Venue: Wembley

The parking lot on Dodd St was absolutely packed by the time 30 hashers made their way to Lake Monger, with some having to walk 2 to 300 meters to the meeting point. On the St Patrick day weekend, the GM was a no show so, HogShit took charge of the circle. Animule gave instructions for the runners and walkers different trails, and we took off. We went through three neighbourhoods, under and over the freeway, in and out of parks and dark alleys and, for a while, confused with another bunch of runners with torches inside Herdsman Lake, but after a bit more than one hour out there, the final count resulted on everybody is back and no one missing.

Runners Report

Replicar reported a longish run with long false trails. Tight Arse commented that he saw seven runners starting and one by one were disappearing until at the end there were only 4. Replicar gave a 9.5.

Walkers Report

Cookie said they gave up looking for farrows and ended up going around the Park. Sybil added that they lost the trail and went to the wrong lake but found trail at the end. Scored 9.8
