RUN: 1741 Date: 03/01/ 2025 - Hare: Inspector Gadget Venue: Beaconsfield

Runners Report

Troppo was summoned forth to address the merits or demerits of the run. According to Troppo, the trail was brilliant even if he was at the back of the pack. Estimate as to length, about 5 kilometres, with a most welcome drink stop very close to the ON HOME. He enjoyed drinks of champers and orange, accompanied by snakes of the gummy variety

Score: 9.5/10

Walkers Report

D Liva Rants gave this brief summation. The trail was lovely and short, probably only 3.5 kilometres.

I enjoyed the marvellous drink stop.

Score: 9.

Actual Run length 4.6 kms

Visitors and LTNS

Visitors: Wendy, White Pointer's daughter joined us for her first Friday Hash run.

LTNS

Rubber Ducky and "Too Small, "Too Hard," or "Too Soft"? All these names were told to your On Sec. Thankfully he introduced himself as Never Hard. A big welcome back drink was served by our piss pourers to the three of them.

Choir Mistress insisted we sing We've Got Virgins at our Hash to young Wendy. The lads got the usual "down the hatch" song.

The Circle

The circle was called to order by R.A. Mountain Hawk who managed to wriggle into her glorious Celtic gown in spite of all her imbibing over the holiday celebrations.

She informed us that the Third of January was The Feast of the Circumcision. Animule was called into the Circle. Nobody can circumcise a hash trail like him! She wrote a poem. Immortalised it in song: The Foreskin can henceforth be sung on this auspicious day. The crowd went wild with enthusiasm. Recovered from The Feast of the Foreskins, the RA pointed out her next notation on the calendar: was the 6th of January. On this day all your Christmas decorations must come down to prevent dire consequences. The Epiphany, the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles, is The Feast of the Three Kings. It is a day that gives a man the right to reinvent himself. Representing Everyman, was De Liva Rants. Our R.A. had cause for alarm brought on by her eavesdropping earlier. Slugger was overheard saying her dog, Zeppy, had not left home for four days because of the excessive heat. We all know how much Phantom loves dogs...Zeppy dropped four turds behind Phantom's car. Come on down for your drink Slugger.

Charges and Accolades from the Floor

The R.A. pulled rank to begin the charges. Wendy was charged with lowering the age of Friday Hash.

To top that offence, the lassie went on to do the limbo under every tree limb! Such physicality! Horny Flasher crowned her with the big red Bad Girl hat followed by a rousing rendition of the Bad Girl Song assisted by the off-key group.

Tight Arse gave Wendy an accolade for being such a good sport on her first night at Friday hash. Another Down Down. I guess she likes our splash!

Mental Disorder got a drink for being stupid. Just what the specific act of stupidity was, I missed.

Troppo was into the Circle for being afraid of cats! (It is believed, by someone in the Circle, he may like a little pussy but three big cats on the path were more than the Hashman could handle.) The cats caused Troppo to deviate onto the street. In his state of half mindedness, they were NOT NORMAL SIZED pussy cats! Witness to it all Replicar stated that there was only one cat and it was a very normal sized pussy cat. Amazed it could be the cause of Troppo's veering off trail and becoming a road hazard.

Troppo relished his Splash!

Lofty was charged for having an in-depth conversation with his doggie sweetheart, in the back of the station wagon. No one knew Lofty was conversant in canine speech!

Horny Flasher made him don the blue furry hat, the closest headgear to an animal she has!

An Accolade was dished out by Mental Disorder to two cross clubbing hashers: Replicar and Troppo.

At the Joint Run last Friday, in the Circle, they both stepped out to properly sing the Friday hash song. Hats were placed on their heads as they drank.

TightArse noted and charged Replicar for wearing his nifty down down hat backwards calling him a Back to Fronter! Replicar refused to take the charge, stating in his defence, that was how the hat was put upon his head. Drinks for both.

Biro was charged for looking for a toilet. It was not behind her car but if she turned around, she had a clear visual of a very well-lit toilet block, just across the street. Too bad, the toilet block shut at 7:00 PM. Her bladder was refilled with splash.

White Pointer charged GPS for having new shoes. A new shoe drink was down the hatch.

White Pointer blasted a charge back onto GPS for telling Wendy she should go and get a DNA test because she was too good looking to be White Pointer's daughter! Those two men...

Yo charged Lofty for being a bad dog handler. He secured the dog, right where we were going to have the Circle. Poor Sherbie denied a chance to go out onto the footie oval, had no option but to piss on the concrete...creating a yellow version of Lake Superior which continued to flow on down, down over Niagara Falls creating her own St Lawrence seaway. Area had to be quarantined; Mental Disorder was forced to hobble away with his chair. Indefensible.

General Business

Hogshit gave thanks to all who helped with the Christmas dinner. The money raised will be sent to Back On Track Charity when they are Back from Holidays! The money the Club makes from the 10 cent redemption on cans and bottles we were able to increase the donation.

Inspector Gadget gave out the remaining Friday Hash Directories. Rubber Ducky got one.

Gadget urgently called out for members to sign up for to lay trails/runs for February.

The On Sec notes: some members chose not to sign in because a record of their presence is recorded by Hash Cash. Unfortunately, you may miss out on your milestone runs being recognised in the Circle.
