RUN: 1754 - Date: 04/04/2025 - Hare: Light My Fire – Co-Hare:- Sheep Shunter -
Venue: Jubilee Reserve, Eden Hill Runner Numbers: 34

Runner's Trail Length: 7.6 KM according to Hogshit who reliably records the length of the run he goes on!

Walker's Trail Length: ?? as always unknown! If Dynamo and Hardcase would just utilise their devices I am most certain we would all know how long the walkers trail was. They could even map their route?

Runners Report

Biro was called out to do the run report. She did a quick punt to Troppo. He handballed the summons off to Bell Boy! My, what excitement! The ball eventually landed back in the capable hands of Troppo. No more playing "pass the parcel" ordered the stand-in GM. Troppo's commentary went On and On something like this. "Oh, it was an excellent run as to be expected from an old hasher like Sheep Shunter. Bell Boy and I missed the first false trail. We were joined at the hip like Siamese twins for the rest of the run. We ran and ran. It was all good.

Score: 9.9

Walkers Report

Tightarse was rugged up for a trip to the Antarctic. He found the night to be dark, cold and very windy! He was not afraid. He soldiered on at a very slow pace. He increased his pace enough to challenge any world class race walker! Snakes alive! It was the drink stop inspiring his burst of speed.

Per usual, the drink stop was not too far from the On Home. There were offerings of champagne, with or without orange juice. Water was on hand for those that believe their body is a temple and do not imbibe. I don't get it, each to his or her own.

Score: not given Tightarse deemed it a very good walker's trail.

The RA'S Circle

The Circle of the Stand-ins

The Cast

Inspector Gadget for Megawatt

Radar for Horney Flasher as Choir Mistress (minus the hats)

Mouth Organ for Roxby and Skully as Piss Pourer

Tonight, the stand-in GM, Inspector Gadget, (managing to squeeze into GM Megawatt's electric light jacket) called the Circle to order. Chaos momentarily ensued. The stand in Gadget prevailed. He turned the blustery night's festivities over to our Friday Hash Celtic Queen of the Night, RA Mountain Hawk.

Note tonight the RA, Mountain Hawk, has chosen fresh mandarin leaves continuing her tradition of perpetual green leaves in her head piece. The leaves were secured against the elements, but not her flowing robe! A bit of leg on show!

Lofty was called out for not wearing his Freo Nash Hash volunteer short sleeve T shirt. With no layer of protective fat, there was no way Lofty was going to wear a light weight summer T! About now the On Sec's Yo's hands became numb. I failed to record why the RA treated Lofty to the "I will if you will, so will I" song.

Mountain Hawk gave Donald Trump a song! For the absent Trump, Sheep Shunter was called out to stand in and drink the down-down. Troppo suggested that the club put a tariff on his drink! Mountain Hawk led us in a rousing rendition of "Will you still love me tomorrow?" The Friday Hash always goes for a sing along.

Mountain Hawk had High Beam give us a report on the state of the neighbourhood the trails went through. This is a neighbourhood in conflict. It has good and bad. There was not a consensus of how strangers in their streets should be treated. Harriettes strolling along, chatting away in their usual customary manner were surprised by a man coming out of his house, asking if they were alright, offering help. Very nice. Walking down the next street, an aggressive man came out of his house. He yelled at the ladies, "What the Fuck do you want?"

Ballwinkle was summoned forth from his perch on top of a very cold stone wall. It became known that the RA was given very good advice by her Celtic elders. "Do not sit on cold stone walls or you will get piles Ballwinkle. Ballwinkle "re-piled" that he already has piles! Too much information for the pack when we heard about Ballwinkle's boils on his bottom. This fact loudly denied by his wife Mouth Organ.

Light My Fire's absence on the runner's trail was noticed. The RA gave her a dispensation in the form of a water down-down. Why you ask was she not there in the flesh? She was in the kitchen preparing her curries for our consumption. Let us not forget, she even made us a lovely desert with sago plus other yummy stuff I am not familiar with, I so cannot pass comment on the recipe.

Mountain Hawk charged Wenchy for prancing about in her fancy Antarctic gear!

High Beams and Shadow were charged for being look-a-likes. They have the same coats and their hair is done in the same ! Charges to the Twinkies!

They all were given special songs for their down-downs.

Menstrual Disorder was called out to give us an update on Mental Disorder. Mental is currently occupying a hospital bed, in a private room at St John of God's Mount Lawley Hospital ( formerly St Anne's Mercy Hospital). His operation was a success according to his lead surgeon. He is expected to be out of hospital sometime next week. Best wishes for a speedy recovery from the operation and un-eventful rehabilitation from all of us.

The now frozen On Sec apologises to our stand in Choir Mistress, Radar. She was assisted by Mouth Organ. Mouth Organ was multi-tasking. She was the stand in piss pourer. Both Roxby and Skully were missing in action. Skully was unwell so I guess Roxby put on her "mother's bonnet" to nurse the sick wee lass!

Charges from the Floor

Tightarse on Ballwrinkle and Yo Adrian needed to have tariffs on their heads for being Yanks.

Mel Adjusted on visitor White Trash and his sister, Elaine. White Trash did not teach his non-hashing sibling the proper protocols for drinking a down-down. Usual down- down song.

Inspector Gadget then interrupted to inform White Trash that "white trash" ="Whiskey Tango" in military jargon "Whiskey Tango" = "White Woman" in some secret business of the white men in Asia. I believe this has something to do with procuring ladies of the night? I know the Inspector will correct me if I misheard or misunderstood. No miracle ear in tonight, it's in the repair shop. Enquiring minds want to know why Inspector Gadget would need to know this jargon?

VISITORS

Yes!! All the way from old London Town, representing the West London Hash was White Trash. He brought his wife, Wild and Wacky, and his non-hashing sister, Elaine. They were treated to a lengthy scenic drive to the run by Lofty. Lofty's words for Jubilee Reserve were Jubilee Park. So near and yet so far. So many circles...We all got to the run just as the pack left!

WIMPS, Bookends & Zero Heroes

Wimps	Zero Heroes	Bookends

Dummy Shorts

Shadow looked quite smart in the Dummy Shorts.

The Contenders

First in the line of the cross-hairs to be wearing them next week was Lofty for miscommunicating to his carload of visiting navigators! Jubilee Park is by the beach!

Knee-High was nominated from the floor for admiring the Dummy Shorts....how dumb??

Shadow was put forth as a carry over because she did not wear the shorts on the trail.

The FH3 shout off began. Lofty was the first to be removed from consideration.

The rowdy crowd gave a big hooray for Knee High. It was very loud! Was it enough for her to win the coveted garment? Knee High was the undisputed winner. A giggle storm erupted. Further laughter ensued as Knee High struggled to get into her new high fashion bloomers!

Jokers

Troppo informed us, eventually, that only a hen gets laid. First in with the worst joke!

Tightarse informed us that the elections are coming up. He mentioned some political parties had special requirements to run. Circumcision came up in the discussions. You had to be a complete dick to be in the Green Party!

Cookie told a joke about the man who goes into the liquor store to buy a bottle of Scotch. He has ridden his bicycle. The proprietor suggests he might want drink is Scotch first. He might fall off his bike. The costly bottle could be broken. After due consideration, the man took the advice given. He drank his bottle of Scotch. A block away he crashed his bicycle! He said, "Well, it is a good thing I took that man's advice."

Song: "Here's to jolly hashers all sans jester's hats!" Horny Flasher was missing in action with all the gear!

Song

Sir Fumbles led us out in our club song.

Points of Hash Etiquette and Other News

1. Leave parking for Troppo & Phantom's van closest to the venue. Second spot closest to venue should be saved for Mental Disorder.
2. Troppo and Phantom are leaving us for one or two weeks.
3. Wenchy is off again! Just across this big island to Sydney to celebrate her sister's birthday!
