Penistone Park Oval
Penistone Drive
Greenwood
Runners: 40

Dogs: 3 All off lead at the On Home and very well behaved!

Victory for Yo! Finally, she was the first to arrive! At the wrong carpark. By the time Lofty took Yo a scenic tour of the neighbourhood, they found Troppo and Phantom unloading the van with the assistance of our ever-helpful, Bulldust. Bulldust swore he was going to charge Yo for sending him on the first false of the night. Yo misdirected him to the wrong carpark!

Some may remember, the On Sec is not a big fan of Penistone Park, Perth Harriette style. Yo does have high praises of how our cross-over members from Hamersley H4 manage to set great trails from the same spot.

The On Sec this Friday night channelled the Roman god, Janus. (This is the Roman god with “two Heads” one facing frontwards and the other backwards.) Yo’s second week of doing two positions challenge had her feeling like she was “cumming” and going.” A sure-fire way to get members names fixed in your mind is by doing Hash Cash. No more confusing High Beam and Shifty from tonight!

Those incorrigible non-signers of the Big Red Book (BRG)! You all caused Yo great angst! Tallying the recorded number of members who paid per the Cash sheet with the BRG was beyond maddening! Lofty counted, Yo recounted, they counted together countless times. Run numbers kept climbing as we remembered more of the LTNs there on the night. The mystery of the extra $8.00 was solved! Morphine paid for himself and Sprinkler. What a gentleman! Neither signed the BRG! They do not appear on the Hash Cash member’s sheet. Hardcase counted 40 heads for catering purposes. Yo trusts his head-count. Your future GM has a proper insight into this role! Radar returns from holidays 23-09-2025!

Please sign the BRG or be sure you appear on the Hash Cash role.

A memorable moment: Cash was handed a $50 note. Making change is not Yo's forte. Yo could never manage a till. She was going to hand the big bill back. Oops! Our GM Megawatt returns all cashed up tonight! Now Yo owes him $42. Good thing we had a great turnout.

Next Hardcase handed Yo a plastic bag. As the Hare he does not pay, what could this be? Our Club camera was hand delivered from Mel Adjusted to Hardcase Monday night at Hamersly H3 with the comment, "Good luck finding a stand-in Flash!" Yo's lucky night! Yo. The next hasher to pay was High Beam. She often stands in for Sir Fumbles. Thankfully, she agreed to take on the Flash duties! (Except for recharging camera; up loading the photos to the Web site. Beyond her pay grade.)

Sheep Shunter is on his own tonight! Light My Fire is off for a fun night with the girls.

Yo remembered the face of Kanye. A returnee visitor from White Pointer's run. He is debating on joining this motley group!

Fully Charged was so full of juice she signed the BRG on last week's page! This could be a charge? Error corrected.

Inspector Gadget shouted a 5-minute warning before chalk talk. Cash box shut; locked in the car. Mental Disorder and Chico agreed to be Hash Security tonight.

GM Megawatt's Pre-Run Circle Up for Run 1776!

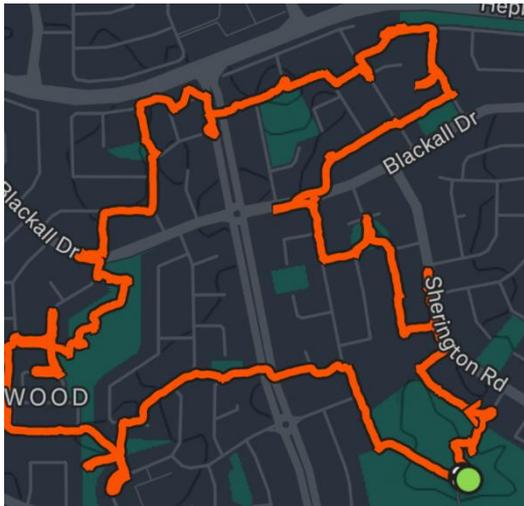

Circle UP! Let's listen to the hare Come out Hardcase. Give us instructions for tonight's run. There were two trails. One for the runners and one for the walkers. It was on chalk and flour. On-On that way! We were all off! In assorted directions across the park.

The runners set a blistering pace. The walkers ambled, power walked but mostly talked. There were double digits numbers of LTNS tonight; heaps of information to be exchanged. Last cabs off the rank were Slugger and Yo. Almost sucked in by a false trail, then saved by runners blasting past us in the opposite direction. The trail was very well marked with big farrows; the flour plops were a bit on the small size. Yo lived in hope Dynamo had made a cake for desert with the bulk of the flour! No, Dynamo bought lots of sweeties for the drink stop: marshmallows and snakes instead. Hardcase "poured" as we say in the South in Dixie Land. It was wonderful to have mild weather! Hashers stayed overtime at the drink stop. It was cool, no wind and no rain! We had to dispense with some of our usual layers. Not the RA Mountain Hawk. She still had on thermals layers plus a puffer jacker! Bell Boy and Sheep Shunter sipped leisurely drinks wearing their usual shorts. Visitors Morphine and Molly Dooker had on flashy summer shirts and running shorts. The port was delicious it with lemonade or water or straight! Spoilt for choice. The best bit was we were only a wee three blocks from Penistone Park. The slowest of the slow walkers tonight were glad of that. Walking and talking, now sucking on Snakes, the On Home was reached after ambling for a total of over an hour! Hips, knees and backs were feeling the length of trail. Not complaining, it was a top trail!

The GM's Circle

The Order of the Circle

Megawattt called in the Hare, Hardcase and Co-hare Dynamo out for the traditional Down-Down. Thoughtful Piss-pourer Skully made sure Dynamo's was non-alcoholic. Choir Mistress Horny Flasher was back to lead us in song.

The Runners Trail Report

Bulldust was called upon to give testimony regarding the runner's trail. Tonight, for something different, Bulldust was attacked by a dog! The length of Bulldust's run (which we know included all the falsies) was 8.75 KM. The Drink Stop was appreciated as he was dehydrated from kicking up so much dust. He had worked up a thirst. I believe all the runners agreed.

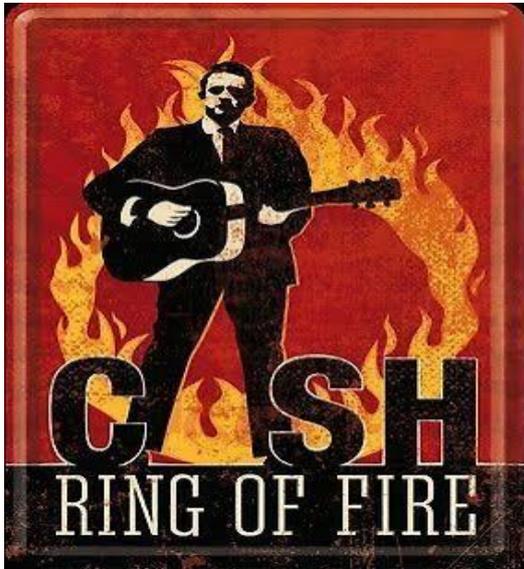

The Walkers Trail Report

D Iva Rants is back again. There was no rain forecast tonight. She walked and she talked and missed finding the trail a couple of times because she was focused on her conversation!

It was a lovely walk. The drink stop was swell done. Down-downs for our trail critics.

The RA's Orderly Circle

Mountain Hawk said, "today was Special Death Day." OK, that's a first the On Sec has heard of a "Special Death Day." Sombre was the mood tonight. It was the anniversary of another famous singer – Johnny Cash (JC) – not Jesus Christ). Since JC came from Arkansas, Yo Adrian is the only one who can represent JC. A hat was plonked on her head. Yo earlier received dispensation to sit in the Circle. She sat and drank to the song "Burn, burn, burn that Ring of Fire" belted out by Horny Flasher and the RA, joined by the pack!

International Gym Day was her next topic. Dynamo, where are you? Fetching our tucker! Wenchy! As our next fittest lady, you will drink to, "Dina Dina Show Us Your Leg!"

Charges from the Floor

Cameltoe came on this run after being promised toilets by Yo Adrian. She charged Yo Adrian for No Toilets! Dereliction of duty, failing to unlock the lady's toilet! Defence: Toilets were open before the run. Who neglected to put the brick back in place to keep the automatic door from closing and locking? Now the Circle digressed into toilet etiquette. Remove the brick for privacy i.e. no one can barge in on your privacy by taking the brick in to the toilet. One needs to replace brick so the next person doing the pee-pee dance can access the loo! Troppo grinning, had to have the last word. He came into the circle swinging the key to the toilets! Yo got another drink and wore a sombrero as FH3 sang, "I Love the Vino Song".

Sprinkler was overheard talking in the Circle. She made a disparaging remark about the GM, said, "He was lit up like a Christmas Tree!" Sprinkler is a Bad Girl, earned her wore the Red Bad Girl hat. Horny Flasher led us in the "Bad Girl Song."

Tutti Frutti was charged for leaning in the Circle, using a post for support. Blue furry hat on head, she drank her down-down.

Mountain Hawk on Di Liva Rants for returning from holidays as a Shadow of her former self. Song was a version of, "She's a shadow of herself do da." Horny is quick off the mark tonight.

Yo Adrian charged Troppo for causing the utmost martial anxiety tonight by getting LOST!

Yo strained her vocal cords quieting the group to see who last sighted Troppo and where.

Phantom beside herself with worry. "Troppo never gets lost. He is never the last runner!" Someone in the Circle said, "I see him! He is coming out from behind that big tree!" Making himself even later by having a wee? Troppo tried to defend himself. "I got lost. I was out so long I had to take a piss behind the biggest tree closest to home." Troppo got a drink for creating worry and distress for his beloved Phantom! The "Himbo Song" was sung. Bulldust commented the warm weather must have caused him to go "Troppo". Phantom gave a BIG sigh of relief.

Special Runs: None

Visitors: 5 Molly Dooker from Hamersley H4; Cameltoe from Darwin H3; Kanye, a two timer to FH3; and Morphine & Sprinkler former members, trying us on for size since the weather is getting warmer!

LTNS: Confusion Reigns! Where did they all come from? Who left the gate open? Look how many FH3 members came out of the wood work on the first night of warm weather!

GM, Megawatt and the lovely Sybil back from three weeks overseas; Songmistress Horny Flasher and Buttered Buns, other travellers returning from overseas: Ballwrinkle and Mouth Organ. Menstrual Disorder finally took a night off work! (Note: the airplanes are still flying overhead, Perth Airport did not close because of MD's absence), GPS trekked up to the Northern suburbs, from way down South, (Penistone Park is the drawcard?), Piss-Pourer Skully, relieved of her "Auntie Duties," tonight by grandparents Roxby and Drag Queen who have assumed the duty; Morphine and Sprinkler were a sight for sore eyes. Sweet Dreams rocking up after so many moons was a nice surprise!

Welcome back to you all! A big thank you to who ever relieved Skully so she could enjoy a drink.

General Business

1. Trail Master - Inspector Gadget requested you give him your run site location details as soon as you have them.
2. Mental reminded us of the "South of Perth Close to Your Heart Run." Lofty expanded on his explanation. On Sec's note: There is a flyer attached to the Rag. Cheaper if you register early on line. $20.00. They need numbers for catering, so sign up for a good cause.
3. Haberdash:
Slugger has her order book. She is taking orders for FH3 puffer vests. So far numbers have exceeded expectation! Many have ordered tonight! She has photos but no samples tonight.

The Club Logo will be on the left breast. If you desire, for only $8.00, your Hash name goes on the right breast Cost: $60.00 without your hash name $68.00 with your name.

When you make your sizing decision, remember to allow room for the clothing that you will be wearing under your puffer vest. A good investment if Perth weather continues trying to be like Sydney's horrendously wet and cold climate!

4. Lotto: Mental Disorder gave us an update on our Lotto winnings and our reinvestment.
5. Tight Arse reminded us of FH3 restaurant night coming up. $15.00 a head for members. Pay on the night at the Himalayan/Nepalese Restaurant. We have been there many times.

Dummy Shorts

Tightarse wore the shorts all night. He was able to them up with braces finishing the trail in style. He said, “There is only one nominee deserving the of shorts tonight- Troppo!”

Tightarse nominated Sybil and Buttered Buns. They were like sisters on the run, all chatty, heads together arm in arm, etc. Then they parted company. Sibling or Sybil rivalry?

Run-off Troppo versus Buttered Buns

Troppo! He put the shorts on his head. Troppo could have the shorts, but not getting the braces! Horny Flasher led us to the tune of “He’s Stupid Song” but with a twist.

Troppo kissed Phantom! The end. Oh, for a beer he will give you the key to the dunny!

Ballwrinkle noted Troppo has failed to find a joke on his phone. He has a joker phone, that does not work. We have a joker with a phone that’s a dummy!

Jokers

Troppo was unprepared for tonight! No cell phone readings!

Inspector Gadget failed us tonight, too.

Mountain Hawk would not leave us jokeless. She told one about two old carnies going up in the airplane at the fair. They could fly for free if they could go the whole flight without speaking. The pilot did all the turns, loops, rolls etc. to make their hearts go up in their throats. Upon landing the pilot said, “Well done Fred. Not a sound out of you.” Well, I nearly did speak up when Mary fell out of the plane!”

Song

Zip It our nightingale tonight!
