13a Esperance Street, East Victoria Park

Runners and Attendees via the big Red Book 33
Dogs: Sherbie

Pre-run Commentary

Bit of a problem parking the trailer due to the narrow street and a non-hash car being parked in the street; exactly where Mel Adjusted had to turn for reversing into the narrow driveway. The backup exercise was finally achieved by unhooking the trailer from his vehicle; and “man-handling” it down the driveway. Well done.

The Circle

The 3 hares (i.e. the 3 Amigos) were called into the circle for the traditional down-down. Mel Adjusted asked about their collective age. Were they eligible for the pension? Answer yes! Lots of laughing and joking.

Runner’s Report by Phantom

Just like she likes it - short sharp and sweet.
 Score 9.99 - Run Length – Unknown

Walker’s Report by Radar

There were enough walkers to do all the checks and false trails. Good walk - everyone enjoyed it.
 Score 9.99.

LTNS: Robyn (White Pointer’s partner) and Puki Merah

RA's Component of the Circle

Sheep Shunter (herein referred to in the RA's report as Shunter)

Shunter observed that it was a lovely Perth summer evening -pleasant and warm. Not like the cold and windy previous two Friday nights, under the auspices of the previous RA. Mountain Hawk was called out into the circle and given a down-down. There was some talk as to who was the best RA???? Time will tell!

Shunter then posed the question as to what important event happened in 1977? No one could answer his question. The fact of the matter was the Australian $ was floated; and apart from a brief period of parity with the US$, it hasn't floated very well since. Mostly it remains one third submerged. As a retired banker, (with BankWest or was it still the R&I Bank then?), Wenchy was called out for a down-down – Bad Girl song.

Shunter shifted his focus from money and banking to one of FH3 older members Animule. It was observed that he was wandering along and appeared lost. Not to worry though, he had a shadow watching out for him - Sir Fumbles. Perhaps they were both lost. Animule got a down-down wearing the spikey crash hat – where is the Harley?

Shunter asked the next "$64 question" of the night – "What happened on this day in 1901 over the Atlantic Ocean?" Again, the RA's superior knowledge stumped everyone. The 1901 Atlantic event was Marconi's first wireless telegraphy (radio) Morse Code signal from Europe to North America. Prior to that telegraph signals were sent through fixed wires. Marconi was awarded the Nobel Prize in 1909 in recognition of his invention.

Shunter's last "on this day" question goes back even further to 1884. So, what did happen on this day – the first Ashes cricket test in Australia at the Adelaide Oval! Unfortunately, the Poms won 3 to 2 in a five-match series.

Lots of laughter about White Pointer's clothes
